"There's nothin' easy about raising two sons and 16,000 chickens."

I hold down two jobs. One is full-time. Twenty-four hours a day. Seven days a week. Fifty-two weeks a year.

That's my job as a mother. And I wouldn't give it up for anything.

My other job is part-time. But it's demanding too. I give it two or three hours a day, seven days a week, for eight to ten weeks at a time.

a lot of reward.

PERDUE

I raise Perdue Broilers. Of course my husband Buddy is in it too. He's the one who worked out the financing and got the whole thing started. And he's a great help when it's time to clean out the houses.

Anyway, I've never been happier. Or busier. I'm able to keep an eye on my sons, Mike and Everette, while my broilers bring in good steady income (Perdue even guaranteed it in writing).

One last thing. There's no quitting on either one of my jobs. And I'm not promising you a rose garden. But if you're willing to stay with it, there's

Please send me more information on Perdue Broiler Programs.
