

Rescue Squad News & Notes

Then and Now

The first and organization meeting of the Perquimans County Rescue Squad was held on August 14, 1967. At that time, Marion Swindell explained to the persons attending that after Sept. 30, 1967, there would be no commercial ambulance service in Perquimans County. Swindell explained that due to federal regulations his ambulance service was no longer practical.

It was at this meeting that the rescue squad began to take shape. It was decided that this new organization would be called the Perquimans County Rescue Squad and would become incorporated as a non-profit corporation. Vehicles were donated by Towe Motor Company and Hollowell Chevrolet Company. Swindell indicated that he would donate his ambulance to the squad after the September date. Committees were formed to head this new organization to guide it to become the group that it is today.

The Perquimans County Rescue Squad received its charter and officially began its work as a recognized squad on September 15, 1967.

Since the first call which was answered by John Beers and H.B. Miller hundreds of calls have been answered to aid the sick and injured in Perquimans County. Through state regulations, members of the rescue squad are required to take more intensive training in the field of emergency medicine. A majority of the current members are now certified as Emergency Medical Technicians (EMTs). The courses are designed to give the rescue personnel a fuller understanding of diagnostic techniques and the handling of the sick and injured before they are transported as emergency room patients. Even with this required training, the squad remains entirely volunteer.

Anyone interested in becoming a member of the local squad should send a card or letter requesting an application to: Perquimans County Rescue Squad, P.O. Box 191, Hertford, N.C. 27944.

Donations are constantly being accepted and may also be mailed to the above address.

Calls answered thus far this year include: January — 35; February — 29; and March — 38.

Comic

Those accused of fostering the "FPLNCGTSEKFE" are the North Carolina Travel and Tourism Division and the South Brunswick Islands (Holden, Ocean Isle, Sunset beaches) Chamber of Commerce.

Many observers of such warped imagination have likened the event to a combination snipe hunt, demolition derby, and barn raisin'. Cartoonists making the trip are: Tony DiPreta ("Joe Palooka"), Mort Walker ("Beetle Bailey"), Dik Browne ("Hager the Horrible" and "Hi and Lols"), Curt Swan ("Superman"), Bud Sagendorf ("Popeye"), John Prentice ("Rip Kirby"), Dick Wingert ("Hubert"), Jerry Marcus ("Trudy"), Gil Fox ("Side Glances"), Bill Williams ("Disney" and "Dennis the Menace" comic books), Monroe Eisenberg (advertising cartoonist and illustrator), Warren King (editorial cartoonist of the New York News). King just won the Overseas Press Club award for the best foreign affairs cartoon of 1976.

The cartoonists will play (?) golf at Ocean Isle Golf and Country Club, Bald Head Island, and the final days action will be over the Carolina Shores layout. An infamous kite flying contest and a North Carolina pig pickin' are also scheduled for the visitors.

It has been rumored that in addition to claiming to be cartoonists and golfers, there is a small but defiant group that vows to be fishing. Their names are being kept secret lest they get five-ironed by their associates.

More than likely this is the last you'll ever hear about "FPLNCGTSEKFE." The thing is being investigated by a world tribunal to see if any international laws have been broken. Also, there has been some talk that a foreign power wants to buy the whole thing and use it as a secret weapon.

"Look up in the sky!
"Is it a bird?"
"Is it a plane?"
Now! It's just a kite with Beetle Bailey, "Trudy," "Hi and Lols," "Joe Palooka," "Hager the Horrible," "Popeye," "Rip Kirby," "Hubert" and "Superman" on it. Don't even give it any "Side Glances."

The "FPLNCGTSEKFE" First prize at the golf tournament will be a life-size, illuminated, statue of a dinosaur, made of plastic and chicken fat.

After all, the dinosaur is extinct, and chances are the "First and Probably the Last National Cartoonists Golf Tournament, Seafood Eatin', and Kite Flying Extravaganza" will meet the same results.
