Beef Week Is Proclaimed

Governor James B. Hunt Jr. has proclaimed the week of June 19-25 as Beef Week in North Carolina.

to people of all ages," said Government Hunt.

In his proclamation, Gov. Hunt recognized that beef is a traditional American food and the beef industry is the largest segment of the nation's agricultural industry, vital to the economy as well.

"It is important that the people of North Carolina recognize the importance of beef in their everyday life and to honor the beef industry on Father's Day for its contributions to our strength and welfare of our great state and nation, I proclaim the week of June 19-25, 1977, as Beef Week in North Carolina."

Free BP Check

The Perquimans County Rescue Squad will sponsor a blood pressure clinic on the courthouse lawn on June 18 from 10 a.m. until 5 p.m. All residents of Perquimans County are urged to take advantage of this free clinic and have their blood pressure checked. High blood pressure is known as the silent killer because the individual with high blood pressure is unaware of the condition until a heart attack or stroke is the result. Trained technicians will be present offering this special free service.
