Library Update

By WAYNE HENRITZE

New Bookmobile Routes and Schedule
The Perquimans County Library is about to undertake some major changes in bookmobile service. The current bookmobile is being retired in the next couple of weeks and its duties will be assumed by a newer, larger, air-conditioned bookmobile from the Pettigrew Regional Library of which Perquimans County is a member along with the libraries in Edenton, Plymouth and Columbia.

Instead of the house-to-house stops that have been made over the years, the new bookmobile routes will consist of 30-minute stops at churches and stores scattered around the county. Current bookmobile users who are unable to make the short trip to one of the scheduled stops due to infirmity or lack of transportation will continue to receive library service, but from a new, economical outreach station wagon which will be used to deliver books selected for them from the library much as books are selected for many of the bookmobile users now. The library staff is encouraging all current bookmobile users who are in good health and who have transportation to go to one of the new stops. Again, those who are unable to go to one of the new stops can still have books delivered to their homes. Every user on the current routes will be talked to individually about the changes.

This new system will enable the Perquimans County Library to serve county residents much better than the current system since it will result in almost double the "road time" with the new schedule and will systematically serve all areas of the county on a three-week cycle of stops while the new outreach vehicle will allow the library to provide customized homebound service to individuals when this is necessary.

The following is a three-month schedule of bookmobile stops in Perquimans County. All of these stops will be made on Fridays on the three-week cycle matched to the three new routes. These stops were selected through staff discussion with a view to picking the best stops in all areas of the county. After the three-month trial period, revisions will be made in the schedule where necessary. The library staff welcomes thoughts from thoughts from library users concerning this new schedule.
