Governor Jim Hunt Supports PP&K Program

RALEIGH - Governor James B. Hunt Jr. acting to boost youth interest in athletic and competitive endeavor, has called Punt, Pass and Kick to the attention of the people of North Carolina and encouraged boys and girls aged 8 through 13 to participate in this year's PP&K program.

PP&K, the largest youth program of its kind in the country, is sponsored joint-ly by the National Football League and the Ford Dealers of America. More than one million youngsters are expected to enroll for the competition this year. Over 14 million have participated in the PP&K program since it began in 1961.

Youths aged 8 through 13 punt, pass and placekick against others their own ages. Scoring is based on distance and accuracy.

Registrations for PP&K will be taken at par-ticipating Ford dealerships until Sept. 30. Local competitions are scheduled for either the weekend of Sept. 30-Oct. 2 or Oct. 7-9, followed by zone competitions Oct. 15 and district competitions on Oct. 22.

District champions from North Carolina will par-ticipate in the area competition at halftime of the Washington Redskins-Greenbay Packers game in Washington, Nov. 21. Area champions from North Carolina will go on to Tampa for the divisional semifinals at halftime of the Tampa Bay Bucca-neers-St. Louis Cardinals game Dec. 18.

Following divisional semifinals, 12 national finalists, two each in six age groups, will compete for the 1977 national PP&K championship on Jan. 15, at Super Bowl XII in the New Orleans Superdome. The competition will be televised nationally. Winners will receive the PP&K Championship trophy and have their names enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio.
