

THE PERQUIMANS WEEKLY

Volume 22, No. 37

Hertford, Perquimans County, N.C., Thursday, Sept. 15, 1977

15 CENTS

Over $36,000 Allocated To EMS

More than $36,000 has been allocated to the Albemarle area for emergency medical services.

Bill Underkofler, Regional Coordinator of Emergency Medical Services (EMS) in Region R, has announced that $36,732.20 will be awarded to eligible emergency services providers in the area. This figure exceeds that of any other region in North Carolina.

Funds will be used for equipment and/or minor renovations to hospital emergency services. Facilities to which awards are granted must provide 25 per cent of the cost of equipment purchases and/or renovation.

The Albemarle Regional Planning and Development Commission (ARPC) will apply for the funds which will then be designated to eligible applicants.

Eligible applicants for these EMS funds in the ten-county area are Albemarle Hospital, Washington County Hospital, Chowan Hospital, and the Outer Banks Health Center. Administrators of each hospital have been informed of the available funds.

The Region R Emergency Medical Services Council, chaired by Graham Pervier of Currituck County, has been mandated by the State Office of EMS to coordinate and compile applications from the area prior to submitting them to the state through ARPC by December 1.

Funds are to be made available to ARPC no later than March 1, 1978 for obligation or expenditure no later than June 30, 1978.

DISCUSS MEMBERSHIP — Douglas Layden, Chamber of Commerce Vice-President, is shown discussing the annual membership drive at the Chamber Board of Directors' Monday night meeting. At his left is Mary Sue Roach who was named acting executive secretary for the Chamber during the business session. (Staff photo by Kathy M. Newbern)

Daniels Gets Appointment

SEN. MELVIN R. DANIELS JR.

Lieutenant Governor Jimmy Green has announced the appointment of Senator Melvin R. Daniels, Jr. of Elizabeth City to the State Parks and Recreation Commission. Daniels represents the First Senatorial District comprised of Beaufort, Bertie, Camden, Chowan, Currituck, Dare, Gates, Hertford, Hyde, Northampton, Pasquotank, Perquimans, Tyrrell and Washington Counties.

The purpose of the commission is to study and make recommendations for direction and legislation concerning the parks system in North Carolina. Other areas for consideration by the commission include state and federal funding, land acquisition, development and operation of existing parks, and projected needs for placement of new parks.

In announcing the appointment Green praised Daniels, a banking executive, as a valuable addition to the commission. He will join Senator James B. Garrison of Albemarle, Senator Rachel G. Gray of High Point and Senator Joe H. Palmer of Clyde, on the commission.

Civic Calendar

- THURSDAY, SEPT. 15
Hertford BPW Club meets. +++
Hertford Fire Department meets. +++
The Hertford Lions Club will meet and be holding the annual light bulbs and broom sale. +++
SATURDAY, SEPT. 17
The Perquimans County Jaycettes will hold a bake sale from 10 a.m. until at Harris Shopping Center. Cookies, cakes, pies and other homemade items will be on sale. +++
The Hertford Business and Professional Women's (BPW) Club will sponsor a yard sale from 9 a.m. until 1 p.m. at Noah Gregory's Garage. +++
SUNDAY, SEPT. 18
The Snug Harbor Civic League meets. +++
MONDAY, SEPT. 19
The Perquimans County Board of Commissioners meet. +++
A meeting of the Marching Unit Parents' Club will be held. +++
TUESDAY, SEPT. 20
The Hertford Rotary Club will meet. +++
The Belvidere-Chappell Hill Ladies Auxiliary will meet. +++
Perquimans Masonic Lodge meets. +++
The Snow Hill Whitehat Homemakers Club meets. +++
FRIDAY, SEPT. 23
The Belvidere-Chappell Hill Volunteer Fire Department will hold its annual auction sale from 7 p.m. until. The public is invited and may bring donations to be auctioned. The proceeds will go to benefit the department. The annual crowning of the department queen will also be held.

Chamber Kicks Off Membership Drive

The annual membership drive was kicked off Monday night when the Board of Directors of the Perquimans County Chamber of Commerce held its regular meeting.

Chamber Vice-President Douglas Layden who is heading the drive reported that there are currently 149 chamber members and new prospects totaling 25 will be contacted.

A business session was held following discussion on the membership drive.

In action taken, the Board approved a recommendation to contribute $500 to the Recreation and Parks Department to help offset the expenses of awards or trophies for the recreation program this year.

In other business, the Board approved Friday, Dec. 2 as the date for the annual Christmas parade providing that date does not conflict with the Edenton or Elizabeth City parades.

It was reported that the Annual Chamber of Commerce Banquet will be held Nov. 14 with Congressman Walter B. Jones as guest speaker. Tickets to the banquet, to be held at Angler's Cove Restaurant, will be $7.50 per person or $15 per couple.

In discussing the need to order membership plaques for the new chamber year, a motion carried that the same style be used again but green in color.

A donation in the amount of $25 to the Museum of the Albemarle was also approved.

A lengthy discussion was held on the upcoming election of Board members. That election will be held at the next meeting scheduled for October. The current by-laws state that two directors must be elected from each township. The question arose whether the township is the area where the individual resides or where he or she works. President Waldo Winslow volunteered to look into the matter and report back to the Board prior to the mailing of ballots to chamber members.

Ann Young reported on progress at the U.S. 17 park and said members of the high school agricultural classes have agreed to build a bridge to be used there.

Brochures promoting Perquimans County were discussed and it was decided that updated ones are needed.

Before adjourning, the Board approved a motion naming Mrs. Mary Sue Roach acting executive secretary for the Chamber of Commerce. That action was necessary when the former executive secretary failed to notify the Board of plans to report back to work.

Special Week

Bill Cox, Mayor of Hertford, has proclaimed the week of Sept. 17-23 as Constitution Week and urges all citizens to study the document and express gratitude for the privilege of American citizenship.

The special week notes the 190th anniversary of the adoption of the Constitution by the United States. Nationwide, the week is being celebrated with a similar proclamation by President Jimmy Carter.

Police Report

The Hertford Police Department has released the following report of recent activities:

CITATIONS
Joe Allen Harrell of Rt. 3, Box 621, Hertford was cited for speeding at a rate of 39 mph in a 25 mph zone by Officer R.L. Harvey on Sept. 5 on Church Street.

Marlin Edward Bateman of Rt. 2, Hertford was cited Sept. 9 by Officer J.R. Logan for running a stop sign at 10:43 p.m.

Lenton Calvin Holley Jr. of Rt. 1, Box 101-A, Tyner was charged with speeding 39 mph in a 25 mph zone by Officer Harvey on Sept. 11 on Church Street.

ARRESTS
Joan Krause Twiford of 110 Wynne Fork Court, Hertford was arrested by Officer Harvey Sept. 9 on a warrant for failure to appear as directed by citation. She was taken before Magistrate J.D. Young who released her on her own recognizance.

Wallace Hill of 315 Market St., Hertford was arrested Sept. 9 by Officer Harvey for assault and battery.

Grandy White of King St., Hertford was arrested by Chief Marshall Merritt and Sheriff Julian Broughton at 8:45 p.m. Sept. 9 at the Perquimans High School Athletic Field for public intoxication, disorderly conduct and resisting arrest. He was placed in the Albemarle District Jail.

Francis J. Gebo of 218 Melton Ave., Ballston Spa, N.Y. was arrested for driving under the influence by Officer J.C. Boyce at 3:45 p.m. Sept. 10. He was placed in the Albemarle District Jail under a $200 bond.

ACCIDENT
Joyce Taylor Reynolds of Rt. 3, Box 24, Creswell allegedly struck a parked car on the Harris Shopping Center parking lot Sept. 11. The parked car belonged to Helen Hicks Hart of Rt. 1, Box 217, Hertford.

Library Update

By WAYNE HENRITZE
Bookmobile Schedule

The bookmobile will be operating in the Belvidere and Whittenton areas of Perquimans County on Friday, Sept. 16 and every third Friday thereafter.

Destination	Arrives	Departs
Great Hope Church	10:00 a.m.	10:30 a.m.
Hunter's Fork Pentecostal	10:45 a.m.	11:15 a.m.
O.A. Chappell's Store	11:20 a.m.	11:50 a.m.
C.J. Stallings' Store	12:05 p.m.	12:35 p.m.
Up River Friends Church	12:50 p.m.	1:20 p.m.
Layden's Store	1:35 p.m.	2:05 p.m.
Bagley Swamp Wesleyan Church	2:15 p.m.	2:45 p.m.
Mt. Sinai Baptist	2:55 p.m.	3:25 p.m.

Story Hour

The Friday morning story hour for preschoolers ages 3-5 will be held from 10-11 a.m. A lot of the regular participants have recently gone on to kindergarten and now there is plenty of room for additional story hour participants. Parents can stay at the library with their child during the story hour or run errands and pick their child up at 11 a.m.

New Books

Dark Lady by Louis Auchincloss is the story of the toll taken on a woman by her rise to power over 30 years in New York's offices, apartments, and suburbs.

The French Husband by Ethel Gordon tells the story of stolen birthrights involving huge family vineyards in France and the struggle for control that tears a family apart.

The Wolf in the Clouds by Ron Faust is a story of park rangers searching for lost mountain climbers in the face of a blizzard and a sniper.

Child of the Morning by Pauline Gedge is a novel set in ancient Egypt chronicling the rise to power of a woman pharaoh over her husband and illegitimate brother's rightful claims.

The Damascus Cover by Howard Kaplan tells the story of an aging spy sent to rescue the Jewish ghetto in Syria.

Certain People: America's Black Elite by Stephen Birmingham examines conflicts between the old guard of black society's educators and philanthropists and the nouveaux riches such as the millionaire executives behind black publications and products.

I'd Love To, But What'll I Wear? by Polly Bergen is a complete woman's clothing guide for anytime and anywhere which goes into the why's, not just the what's, of fashionable dress.

The West Point Fitness and Diet Book has individual programs by age and sex.

The War in the Trenches by Alan Lloyd is a well illustrated history of World War I.

That Was the Life by Dora Hamblin is the behind the scenes history of Life magazine.

The Soul of Anna Klase by Terrel Miedaner is a novel involving a trial for murder following an operation which is successful in that the patient lives and recovers, but without her soul.

Recreation Dept. Plans Open House

The newly organized Recreation and Parks Department for the county and town will hold an open house this coming Monday, Sept. 19 from 5 to 9 p.m.

The offices are located on Grubb Street beside The Little White House.

Recreation Director Billy Wooten invited all the citizens of Perquimans County to come by and see the facilities and

Beamon Presides In District Court Here

Judge Grafton Beamon presided at the regular session of Perquimans County District Court on Wednesday and heard the following cases:

Dennis Petaway was found not guilty of appearing to be intoxicated.

Edgar Lee Lane II, was found guilty of simple possession of marijuana and was placed on probation with general conditions for two years and given a fine of $50 and cost.

Milford Darnell Jones made his first appearance on charges of breaking and entering and larceny, and Probable Cause Hearing was set for Oct. 12.

In reciprocal support action, George Barnett was found to have an arrearage of $220. The defendant was ordered to pay $20 weekly beginning February 11, 1977. Judge Beamon also found the defendant of willful contempt of court and ordered him to be in the custody of the Sheriff for 25 days with execution stayed on condition that he pay $80 that day and on September 28 he is to pay balance of arrearage and to continue $20 payments. The defendant was rescheduled for further hearing October 28.

Merrill Carlyle Lamb, charged with driving under the influence (2nd offense), received a fine of $135 and cost was ordered not to operate a motor vehicle in North Carolina for 12 months.

Wynne Skinner, charged with assault and battery, was given a five-day jail sentence suspended for two years, and a fine of $20 and cost. The defendant was told to remain on good behavior, not to assault or threaten Shirley Johnikens during the period of suspended sentence.

Shirley Johnikens, charged with simple assault and assault and battery, was taxed with cost of the court, and was told to remain on good behavior, not to molest or assault Wynne Skinner. Prayer for judgment was continued for 12 months.

The court appointed an attorney for Victor Askew, who was charged with larceny in general.

Prayer for judgment was continued for 12 months in the case of Steve Smith, who was charged with trespassing. The defendant was taxed with cost of the court.

Probable cause was found at the Probable Cause Hearing of Curly Butts, who was charged with breaking and entering and larceny, and the case was placed on the Superior Court Docket.

William Henry Askew, charged with abandonment and non-support, was given a 90 day sentence suspended for three years, with cost, was ordered to pay $20 for use of children beginning September 2 (Julia Ann and Tommy) and like sum each week to Margaret Elizabeth Askew.

John Melvin Kirby, charged with driving under the influence (2nd offense), received a 90 day sentence suspended for three years, a fine of $200 and cost, was told to surrender his operator's license to the Clerk of Superior Court, and not to operate a motor vehicle until relicensed by the State. An appeal was noted; Clyde Ray McCutter, charged with abandonment, was placed on Probation for two years, was ordered to pay cost and was told to continue to support his children. The State reserves the right to move for final judgment upon good cause shown.

John Richard Godfrey, charged with driving without caution to endanger persons or property, was given a fine of $25 and cost.

Ralph Fay Nixon, charged with being involved in an accident resulting in property damage, was given a fine of $25 and cost.

Frank Edward Kennedy and Harry Jackson Gibson, both charged with speeding, were taxed with cost.

James Monroe Allen was found guilty of speeding and using an expired operator's license. He was given a fine of $50 and cost.

Rupert Edwin Swayne was taxed with a fine of $40 and cost on a speeding charge.

Gordon Dale Meads found not guilty of speeding.

Catherine Reynolds (See COURT, page 6)

FALL FAST APPROACHING — The scenes above remind area residents that despite lingering summer weather, fall is fast approaching. At left, pumpkins and squash line the front yard of the Alton M. Ivey home on Rt. 4, Hertford waiting to be sold. At right, this harvest

setting brings to mind cool nights and the rustling of leaves. This scene is at the home of the M.H. Elliott Jr. family, also on Rt. (Staff photos by Kathy M. Newbern)