For Your Information

Dear friends,

Your family's important documents should be kept in a safe and accessible place, such as a safety deposit box. Included should be your birth certificate, military discharge papers and serial number, Social Security number, your will, employment history, marriage certificates, insurance policies, and the location of all savings and checking accounts, deeds, mortgages, stock and bonds, contracts, fraternal affiliations, and other personal data.

Respectfully,

CARD OF THANKS

I would like to express my thanks to everyone for their visits, cards, flowers, prayers and other acts of kindness during my time of illness at Albemarle Hospital. A special thanks to the nurses on the third floor and Drs. Jenkins, Nash and Williams. May God bless all of you.

Mrs. Mary W. Johnson

CARD OF THANKS

We would like to express our appreciation for the many ways of kindness and help shown to our loved one, Tommy Twiddy during his long illness and to us at the time of his death. The love you have shown, has brought consolation to our heavy hearts. Tommy was so grateful for all that was done for him. Our prayer is - that God will bless each of you, for your loving care.

LOVE IN THE MIDST OF CRISES

Luke 6:27-36

It should not be surprising that the more Christlike one is, the more strongly he will be opposed, and the more bitterly he will be hated. A genuine Christian life is a constant rebuke to the selfishness and sins of others, and frequently provokes brutal jest, biting sarcasm, and cruel sneers.

LOVE'S REQUIREMENTS

Luke 6:27-30

"Love your enemies." That is what Christ did with His enemies and what He commands His followers to do with theirs. Whereas unsaved people hate their enemies and try to harm them with their words and deeds, true Christians love their enemies through the strength which the Lord gives them and seek their highest welfare. To love enemies is possible only for those who have been made partakers of the divine nature, filled with the Holy Spirit and empowered by Him.

"Do good to them which hate you." One may respond to personal injury by vindictiveness, saying, "I will do my enemy a greater injury than he has done to me;" or by retaliation, saying, "I will return like injury to my enemy;" or by Christlikeness, saying, "I will return good for evil."

"Bless them that curse you." This involves speaking well of those who curse you, and invoking God's blessings upon them. Stephen asked God to bless those who were stoning him to death, thereby proving that insults can be met with prayers for the forgiveness of offenders.

"Pray for them which despitefully use you." Of this Christ gave us the best example when He prayed for those who abused Him, saying, "Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do." It is best to leave those who abuse us in the hands of the just God for He can deal far more effectively with them than we can.

"Unto him that smiteth thee on the cheek offer also the other." It is far better to suffer insult and injury than it is to do wrong.

"Give to every man that asketh of thee." Our Lord does not command us to give exactly the thing for which we are asked, but what is needed. We ought to give generously and cheerfully but intelligently. For example, when one needs food, clothing, and the gospel, he should not be given cash with which to buy more liquor.

LOVE'S RULE

Luke 6:31-34

Very succinctly Christ stated the rule of Christian love, "Do as you would be done by." No higher rule of conduct toward others has ever been given. Note that it is not a negative exhortation, but a positive one. Some would like to interpret it: "Refrain from doing to others what you would not desire them to do to you," but that is not what Christ said. We should act towards others as we wish they would act toward us. The standard we set up for others must be the measure of our own conduct.

LOVE'S REWARD

Luke 6:35-36

What we measure out to others we may rightfully expect to receive in return. Therefore, if we want others to be interested in us, then we must manifest and interest in others. I would like for others to judge us kindly, then we must judge them in like manner. Christ said, "With what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again." God will measure out to us in proportion as we measure out to others.
