PP&K Is Offered Here

Local youngsters will be dusting off" their foot-balls and loosening up their throwing arm for the 1877 Punt, Pass & Kick competition.

This year the local level of PP&K will be cosponsored by the WinslowBlanchard Ford Motor Co. in conjuction with participating Ford Dealers in Nationally PP&K is elebrating its 17th an-iversary. It is sponsored by the Ford Dealers of merica in cooperation with the National Football League. Since it was started in 1961, the program has attracted more than 14 million youngsters — and participation this year is expected to top the 1,300,000

Participants in the Punt, ass & Kick program com-ete only against others their own age. Any youngster 8 through 13 ears of age, accompanied may register to compete in PP&K at any participating Ford Dealer. There is no entrance fee and no body contact during competition. No special equipment is needed and participating does not impair a youngster's amateur standing.

Scoring is based on distance and accuracy with one point added for every foot the ball is punted, passed or kicked, and a point subtracted for every foot it lands off a center

Twelve national finalists will compete for the National Championships in their age group at Super Bowl XII in New Orleans on Jan. 15, 1978. Winners will have their names permanently inscribed in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. Their trophies will be presented by National Football League Commissioner Pete

'Catfish' Wins Award

baseball star for the New York Yankees, but we know his heart yearns for the woods and waters of North Carolina while he is away during the baseball season.

Jim served as chairman of National Hunting and Fishing Day in 1975 and is continuing to support the right to keep and bear arms for all citizens. His commerical interests have been to promote the sports of hunting and fishing in nearly all major publications in our country. His dedication to the youth of our state and country more than qualify

Jim Hunter to be our sportsman of the year."

In a recent issue of since childhood. He is now a FRIEND & WILDLIFE Jim "Catfish" Hunter was named winner of the Governor's Award for

Sportsman of the Year.

The article said, "Jim 'Catfish' Hunter, a North Carolina native, proud of his hunting and fishing heritage in North Carolina, is the recipient of the first 'Sportsman of the Year' award ever presented by the North Carolina Wildlife Federation.

Jim, a native of Hertford, has hunted and fished the wildlife rich areas of eastern North Carolina

Newlyweds Are

Entertained Mr. and Mrs. Harrell

Thach were honored at a formal dinner party given by the Rev. and Mrs. William Cole, Dr. and Mrs. Robert Britt, and Mr. and Mrs. William McCormick on Saturday evening in St.

Twenty guests attended.

Recreation Happenings

CROP DUSTING - This crop duster will soon be out of circulation as the close of summer comes. Most crops have been dusted and picked by this time of the year. (Staff

By BILLY WOOTEN Let me thank everyone who came to the open house last Sunday. I appreciate your interest in our recreation program. For those who were out of town, please come

Photo by Kathy M. Newbern.)

The fall Volleyball league will begin play in October. Cut off date for having your team signed up is Wednesday, Sept. 28. All am representatives should contact the Recreation Department this week about rosters and fees. It is very important that you contact the department as soon as ossible. This league will be for women 16 and up, and men 18 and up. The regular season will last a month with a tournament at the end of the season.

The Recreation Department is also trying to start a womens slimnastics class. Over 20 have signed up as being interested. The major holdup is finding an instructor. If you would like to teach this class, or are just interested in joining the class, contact the Department. Class would be held once or twice a week for one hour, and would consist of exercises, and information on keeping fit.

See you next Week.

INTRODUCING Family of Fine Products MINWA) HINWAX Polyurethane Finish Waxes For extra durable protection Protect/Restore with peate or liquid Antique Oil Finish Wood Finish PHONE 426-7637

Antique Show And Sale Set

The Museum of the Albemarle, located on U.S. 17 south of Elizabeth City, will sponsor an Antique Show and Sale Nov. 4-6. Dealers will bring their booths to the museum to display items for sale, while the door fee will benefit the museum.

The museum is in itself an interesting setting for the event. It uses its collections to illustrate the history of its region.

The ten counties in the Albemarle area, which lies east of the Chowan River and borders the Albemarle Sound, are considered the "cradle of North Carolina." Settled in 1583 by Europeans and for thousands of years before than, by his Indian predecessors, the area fostered North Carolina's beginnings in its social, religious, educational, governmental, and economic development.

These beginnings are depicted in the exhibits such as "The Domestic Duties of the Farmer." which is an artifactual interpretation of the everyday life of the pioneer in the Albemarle where 90

Card Club Meets

Mrs. G.W. Barbee entertained her bridge club Tuesday morning at her home on Grubb Street. Those playing were Mrs. T.L. Jessup, Mrs. C.R. Holmes, Mrs. John Coston, Mrs. H.C. Stokes, Mrs. W.C. Dozier, Miss Mary Sumner, Miss Ruby White, and Miss Thelma Elliott.

Mrs. Jessup won the high score prize. A sweet course was served.

per cent of the early set-the Dismal Swamp, is restrictions placed on the land. The chores of spin-wooded wetlands. restrictions placed on wildlife, decoys have the land. The chores of spin-wooded wetlands. ning and weaving from the basic fiber of flax and the daily tasks of food preparation in the 18th and 19th cen-

"Rich Land and Stately Timber" shows that the lumber industry became a very important by-product of the agricultural com-munity. Seventy per cent of turies are explained.

Showing another source of income for the early Albemarle settlers, an extensive decoy collection tells the story of duck hunting, an occupation that has become a sport. The marshy area surrounding the Currituck and Hyde county banks has always been teeming with wildlife.

Along with the perma-nent stories told in the gallery, during the days of the Antique Show, the Extension Homemakers in the area will provide a Colonial Tearoom in the lobby of the museum. Recipes from the colonial period will make up the menu and the women will be dressed in colonial

