

Many Break-Ins Are Reported

Investigation of break-ins along with other recent activities of the Hertford Police Department have been reported as follows:

ARRESTS
Fred Rountree of 530 Herzle St., Brooklyn, N.Y. was arrested for driving under the influence by Officer J.C. Boyce on Sept. 16 at 8:20 p.m.

Howard McCoy Eason Jr. of P.O. Box 24, Winfall, was booked by the Police Department on a charge of breaking and entering and larceny on Sept. 19. He is presently in the Albemarle District Jail being held on $5,000 bond.

Merrill Carlyle Lamb of Rt. 1, Box 177, Edenton, was arrested for public intoxication by Officer Boyce on Sept. 19 at 11:45 p.m.

LARCENY
Someone entered Pitt Hardware during regular business hours Monday morning at approximately 5:28 p.m. While an employee was busy with a customer, the cash register was opened and approximately $15 in cash was taken. The employee reported that he heard the register open, saw a black male with his hand in the register, then chased him out of the back of the building, but lost him in the vicinity of the Hertford Medical Clinic. Police Chief Marshall Merritt stated that the case was still under investigation and that the department was following up on several good leads.

CITATIONS
Dewey St. Clare Newby of Rt. 1, Box 128-C, Hertford, was charged with speeding at a rate of 40 mph in a 25 mph zone by Chief Merritt on Sept. 18 at 12:10 p.m. on Church St.

Joshua Crandall of Market St., Hertford, was cited for failing to register his vehicle with the Department of Motor Vehicles by Officer J.R. Logan on Sept. 13 at 11:34 p.m.

BREAK-INS
Breaking, entering and larceny occurred at Sutton's Service Station on Edenton Road St. in Hertford Sept. 14. The incident was discovered at 3:55 a.m. by Officer Boyce who reported that someone had broken the glass out of the station's front door, went inside and took approximately $15 from the cash register along with a cigar box. Chief Merritt stated that the case is still under investigation.

Another breaking and entering occurred at the Pyrofax Gas Co. on Edenton Road St. in Hertford Sept. 14. Officer Boyce, who discovered the break-in around 5 a.m., said that a window had been broken on the south side of the building in order to gain entry. No money was taken due to the company's policy of not leaving daily receipts of cash in the building overnight. Chief Merritt, who assisted Officer Boyce, praised the management for such a policy and advised other businesses to follow suit. Merritt theorized that the break-in was allegedly the work of juveniles looking for money only.

Towe Motor Co., located on Dobb St. in Hertford, was the scene of yet another break-in recently, this one occurring on Sept. 15. Clifford Towe, employee, reported the incident to Officer R.L. Harvey at 7:25 a.m. Harvey said entry was gained through a back window on the east side of the building. Nothing was taken however, again due to a policy of removing receipts daily.

Scotties Store, located at the Harris Shopping Center in Hertford, was also recent victim to breaking, entering and larceny. The Sept. 18 incident was investigated by Officer J.R. Logan who reported that someone broke the bathroom window in the rear of the building, entered, and took approximately $50 in cash from the previous day's receipts. Chief Merritt stated that the method of entry was similar in all four cases and that the investigation being conducted by the Hertford Police Department will be concentrated on, but not limited to, known juvenile offenders with a similar M.O. observing any suspicious activity report it promptly to the department.

New Books

The Education of Little Tree by Forrest Carter is a boyhood biography of the author who is orphaned, raised by his Cherokee grandparents, and instilled with a love for nature.

I, Sherlock Holmes by Michael Harrison is another of those "lost memoirs" of the master detective.

The Saturday Knife and Gun Club by B.P. Reiter is the story of an intern in a big city emergency room.

Hear that Lonesome Whistle Blow by Dee Brown is the story of American railroads in the west.

Grow or Die by James Weber challenges ecologists and zero population growth advocates with his thesis regarding the need for continuing growth.

Rainbrook: Resources for Appropriate Technology is an annotated and readable bibliography on various aspects of alternative lifestyles; a Whole Earth Catalog of books.

American Hunger by Richard Wright is a continuation of his earlier biography Black Boy which ended with his heading north to Chicago; this is what happened when he got there.

The Great Pyramid Decoded by Peter Lemesurier uncovers a code of numbers which contains a record of man's evolution and future.

Sport Magazine's All Time All Stars is a collection of short biographies of their selections for the ultimate American vs. National League all-star game.

Redating the New Testament by John Robinson challenges the traditional idea that the New Testament was written long after the fact with evidence that all the books were written before 70 A.D. since the fall of Jerusalem in that year is not mentioned in any of them.
