Areas Assigned

RALEIGH — Secretary of Transportation Thomas W. Bradshaw Jr. has announced the assignment of specific geographic areas for 17 members of the Board of Transportation as their prime responsibility for transportation issues. Six members of the 24-member Board will continue to serve as "at-large" members, while Secretary Bradshaw serves as the Board's chairman.

"While some of our Board members have specific geographic areas as their prime responsibility, we will continue to work as a team to provide the citizens of North Carolina with the best possible transportation system," Bradshaw commented.

Of interest to Albemarle area residents is the geographical areas of responsibility assigned to Board of Transportation members for Division 1. Marc Basnight of Manteo and T.G. Joyner of Garysburg. Basnight's area will include Perquimans, Dare, Currituck, Pasquotank, Camden, Gates and Chowan counties. Joyner's territory will include Bertie, Hertford, Hyde, Martin, Northampton, Tyrrell, and Washington counties.

The new facility would contain about 20,000 square feet of space and have a 68-bed capacity. It is being designed by Pendleton, Leonard, & Kridler of Statesville so that adult care can be provided if it is found to be needed.

Construction costs have been placed at $750,000. The annual payroll would be in the $150,000 range.

Like the 96-bed intermediate and skilled care facility of Cape Colony Haven, the retirement complex would provide a home atmosphere at a reasonable cost, according to Mitchener.

The chairman said the facility would allow the owners to utilize approximately three acres of open space between the present nursing home and Paradise Rd., which is bounded on the North by U.S. 17 Bypass.

The Haven Group will also contract for services with Outer Banks Haven at Mags Head when it is completed within the next 12 months.
