Revival Services Are Planned Burgess Baptist Church ---- New Hope

Glenn Greenway, Pastor of Berra Baptist Church, will be guest minister of the Revival Services being held at Burgess Baptist Church,

First Baptist Church

News of regular and revival services from First Baptist Church includes: regular services this Sunday with Sunday School beginning at 9:45 a.m. and the morning worship ser-vice at 11 a.m. Rev. J.H. London, pastor, will preach on the subject, "Beau Stew" (Gen. 25:27). The Lunka Cheinwill size Junior Choir will sing.

Revival services at the church begin Sunday at 1:30 p.m. (Oct. 2) with the Rev. Michael Ebrom and the Leigh Temple AME Zion Pastor's Aide; Monday night activities include Sunday School and missionary union in charge with a message from Rev. Butler Sharpe and the New Haven Baptist Church.

Revival continues Tuesday night with the deacon board in charge and music from the Bethel Baptist Church; Wednesday night activities include the Saunders Grove Baptist Church Choir and ushers. The Trustees Board has charge. The First Baptist Senior Choir is in charge of Thursday night with the Melton Grove Baptist Choir and Ushers to visit. Friday night includes the Galatia Baptist Church Choir and Ushers. The Senior Ushers Board is in charge. Rounding out revival activities on Sunday, Oct. 9 is a message by Rev. John H. London Jr. along with special music from the senior and junior choirs.

Obituaries -

MRS. LILLIAN W. APPLEGATE

Mrs. Lillian Eugenia Weller Applegate, 81, of Hertford, died Saturday in the Chowan Hospital. A native of Trenton, N.J. she was the widow of Edward Golding Applegate and daughter of the late Franklin and Mrs. Florence Moore Weller.

She was a member of the Hertford United Methodist Church, the Edenton Tea Party Chapter Daughters of the American Revolution and the Huguenot Society of N.J.

Surviving are a son, Thomas A. Applegate of Ft. Myers, Fla.; ten grandchildren and one great grandchild.

Funeral Services were held Tuesday at 2 p.m. in Cedarwood Cemetery in Hertfod by the Rev. Amos Stone, pastor of the Hertford United Methodist Church.

Swindell Funeral Home was in charge of the Arrangements.

MRS. SARAH MAE FELTON

Funeral services for Mrs. Sarah Mae Felton were held Sept. 25 at New Bethel Baptist Church by Rev. S.L. Lawrence and Rev. J.H. London

Mrs. Felton, 41, was the daughter of Mrs. Eliza Jones and the late Willie Jones.

A native of Perguimans County, she was a member of the New Bethel Baptist Church.

Survivors include her widower, Herman Felton Sr. of Hertford; her mother, Mrs. Eliza Jones Williams of Chesapeake, Va.; two daughters, Miss Kindra Felton and Miss Lennette Felton of the home; five sons, Abner Harvey, Herman Felton Jr., Kimbley Harvey and Lenay Felton of Hertford, and Andy Harvey of Boston, Mass.; five wothers, Percy Clifton Jones of Edenton, Willie Jones and Ray Jones of Hempstead, Long Island, Bill Jones of Staten Island, N.Y., and George Wynn of Long Beach, N.Y. Funeral arrangements were handled by Rowsom Funeral Home of Edenton.

MRS. LUCILLE F. WILLIAMS

Mrs. Lucille Fleetwood Williams, 72, of Rt. 1, Hertford, died Friday at 12:45 p.m. in the Chowan Hospital following an illness of six months.

A Perquimans County Native, she was the daughter of the late Lee and Mrs. Lillie Elliott Fleetwood. Before her retirement, she worked as a machine operator for Don Juan Manufacturing Co.

on Harvey Point Rd. on Oct. 3 through Oct. 8. pastor. Services will begin each night at 7:45 p.m. There will be special music each invited night. Noah A. Toler is host The public is cordially evening at 7:30. The Rev.Barbour has been serving in the North Carolina Conference for 10 years. Prior to that he worked for a phone company. Rev. Barbour is in great demand as a revival speaker with several more

The New Hope United Methodist Church will be holding revival services

attend any or all of these REV. BERRY BARBOUR revival services.

CARD OF THANKS

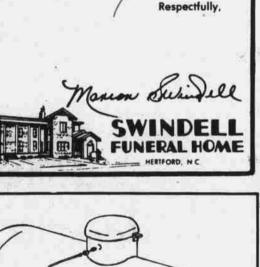

I would like to express my thanks to everyone for their visits, cards, flowers, gifts, prayers, and other acts of kindness shown me during my time of illness at Albemarle Hospital. A special thanks to the nurses on the 4th floor of Drs. Poston and Crutchly. may God bless all of you.

Ann Trueblood

For Your Information'

Dear friends,

When a death occurs in the family, it is wrong to say to a child, "Grandpa is on a trip" or "Mother is living in the hospital". Children must be told the truth; they have built-in 'lie detectors'. Deceptive parents diminish the trust children place in their father and mother.

The Perquimans Weekly, Hertford, N.C., Thursday, September 29, 1977-Page 3 Sunday School Lesson

JUDGING AND FORGIVING John 8:3-7

While Christ was teaching in the temple of Jerusalem, the scribes and Pharisees, who repeatedly sought op-portunities to take advantage of and to entrap Christ, brazenly barged into His presence, bringing to Him a woman whom they had snoopingly caught in the act of adultery. According to the law of Moses (Deuteronomy 22:23-24) such a person should be stoned when her sin was attested to by two persons. These critics asked Christ if the law of Moses should be administered in this case or would He propose another rule for them to go by? Really they were not concerned about this sinful woman, but they were vitally interested in finding some basis on which to bring both religious and civil charges against Christ. In the event that He should say that she should not be stoned to death, they would accuse Him of being an enemy of Moses and charge Him with breaking his law, which prescribed the death penalty. If Christ should agree with Moses and declare that the woman should be executed. He would them be in trouble with the Roman government, whose officials had the sole authority to impose the death penalty.

Christ did not reply to His hypocritical questioner, but stooped and wrote with His finger in the sandy soil. Since nobody knows what He wrote, any speculation on our part is unnecessary and unwise. Undaunted by His ignoring them, and thinking that perhaps they had puzzled and perplexed Him to such an extent that He did not know what to say, His questioner pressed for an immediate answer. Knowing that they wanted to murder the Messiah, Christ exposed the unfitness of these men by sitting in judgment on her. He confounded them by saying, "He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her." How appropriate that remark was! Christ was willing for any of them who had never committed adultery in their hearts to stone the woman for her sin. Again, Christ stooped and wrote on the ground. All of the thoroughly humiliated critics withdrew themselves with the least possible notice from others.

Luke 6:37-42

Christ devoted a part of the Sermon on the Mount to those who were addicted to the sinful habit of judging, criticizing, and condemning others. Unfortunately, some seemingly have nothing else to talk about except their acquaintances. They discuss their conduct, accuse them of having unworthy motives, repeat slanderous statements about them, and derive satisfaction from condemning them. Such an uncharitable and censorious spirit hinders Christian fellowship and hampers the work of Christ. Therefore, Christ commanded His followers to abstain from indulgence in this sin.

Looking for faults and seeking to tear down others in order to build up self arrests one's intellectual and spiritual development and is a sure way of ministering to one's own wretchedness and of destroying one's usefulness. As you judge others, you will be judged. The measure you give will be the measure of your own conduct. Life moves in a circle, and what we give to others we get from them. We want others to take a generous interest in us, to look for the best in us, and to help lighten our loads. Therefore, let us take a genuine interest in others, look for the best in them, and strive to lighten their burdens. In other words, treat the other fellow as you would want to be treated under similar circumstances.

And remember that a faultfinder is never a reliable factfinder. To seek the worst in others is to become blind to the best that is in them. Searching for blemishes in others causes one to treat trivial matters as though they were of major importance.

If you would, overcome this hypocritical and censorious spirit, recognize the sinfulness of it, repent of it, and rely. upon God's grace to help you overcome it.

+++ The Sunday School Lesson is sent in each week by Clear Creek Baptist School in Pineville, Ky. and is based on copyrighted outlines produced by the committee on the Uniform Series and is used by permission.

Bazaar Announed

The United Methodist Women of the Hertford United Methodist Church will hold their annual bazaar, "Harves Time", on Wednesday, November 2 from 10 a.m. until 9 p.m. at the church. A chicken salad luncheon will be served from 11 a.m. until 1 p.m. and cake and coffee will be sold later in the day.

Tickets for the luncheon, which are $2.50, may be ob-tained from any UMW member or at the Paragon Beauty Shop, Woodard's Pharmacy, Woodland Dress Shop, or by calling Mrs. C.T. Skinner Jr., ticket chairman, at 426-7690 after 5 p.m. No tickets will be sold at the door.

Woodland returned home.

Monday after a visit with

Mr. and Mrs. J.T. Big-

gers have returned home

after a visit with their son-

in-law and daughter, Dr.

and Mrs. W.E. Schaaf, in Virginia Beach, Va. was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Matthews this

Mr. and Mrs. W.F.

Tarkenton spent the weekend in Cary with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Presley.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Woodard and family spent the weekend in Richmond,

Va. and visited King's.

With the state of the second

Mrs. Fred Matthews of Gloucester.

week.

Dominion.

Mr. and Mrs. J.W. Ward.

People In The News

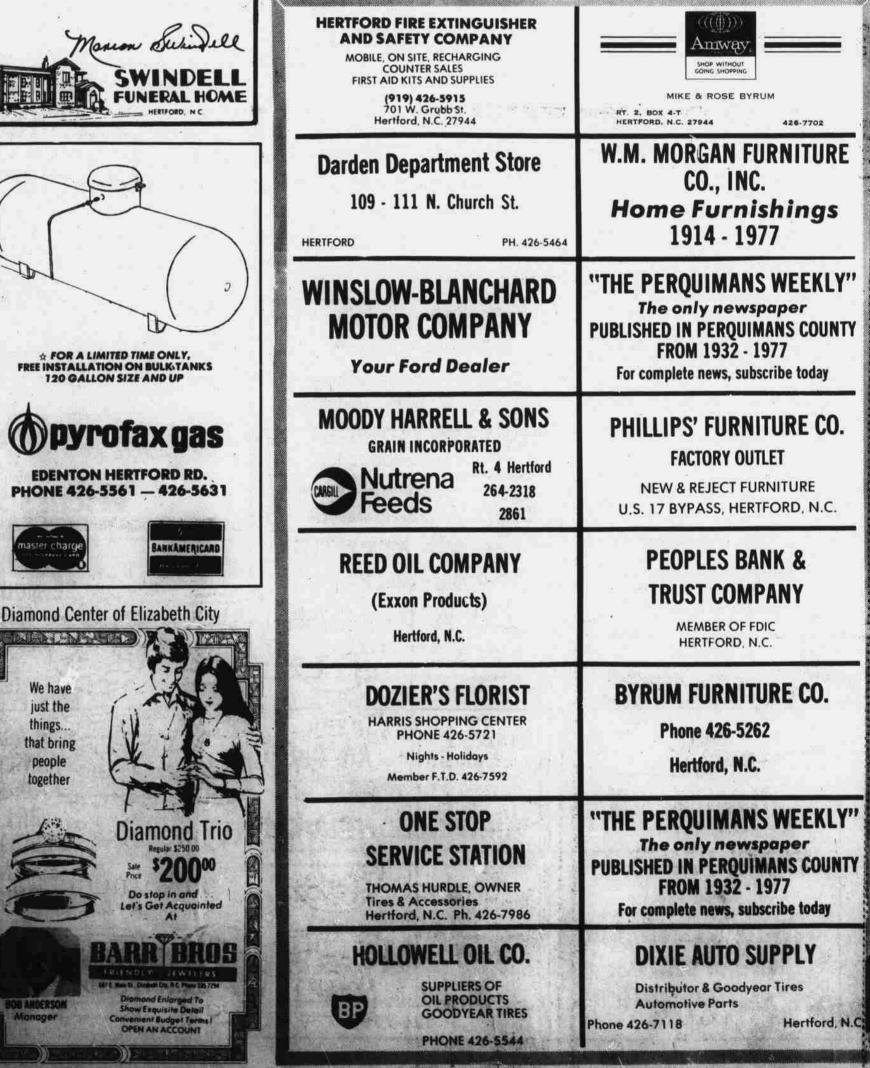

William M. Moore of Fayetteville was a guest of Mrs. Ralph Wilcox on Friday.

Mrs. Walter Carpenter, III, and her daughter, Nicole, of Roanoke, Va. are guests of Mrs. Carpenter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Estes Copeland, in Belvidere.

Mr. and Mrs. J.E. Newby spent the weekend at The First Colony Motel at Nags

Head. Mrs. George Clarke of Petersburg, Va. was a guest of her mother, Mrs. E. Morris, on Sunday. Mrs. Arthur Woods of Bethesda, Md. spent a few days last week at her home in Hertford prior to leaving for Nags Head to visit Mrs. Lloyd Horton.

Mrs. Maude Godwin is a Mrs. Anna Parker and patient in the Chowan Miss Mary Outland of Hospital in Edenton.

She was a Baptist.

Surviving are her husband, William Earl Williams; a sister Mrs. Mattie Barwick, of Miami, Fla.; and a half-brother, Cecil Meyers of Chesapeake, Va Funeral services were held Monday at 2 p.m. in the Bethel Baptist Church Cemetery by the Rev. Stanley Nixon, pastor of the Bethel Baptist Church.

The casket pall was makd of pink carnations, white chrysanthemums and baby's breath.

Swindell Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Ruritans Host Pastor

The Rev. Charles Bullard, pastor of the Hertford Baptist Church, was the guest speaker at the the guest speaker at the Bethel Ruritan Meeting, Thursday night, Sept. 22. Bullard talked about the in-gredients which go into making a successful mar-riage and the many things which can happen to a marriage. He brought out the fact that being successful in this day and time is not necessarily in terms of money or glory but looking after the many things with which we are blessed. First should be our God, our spouse and our family and then all of the other things for which we are responsi-ble should follow.

New Arrival Following the program, a short business meeting was held by Dewey Perry Jr., President.

Fall Shrubbery

Pine Bark

Chrysanthemums

NOW AT

BATEMAN'S HOUSE PLANTS

CHARLES ST. HERTFORD, N.C.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Waters announce the birth of their first child, a son, Derek Scott, born Sept. 9, in Chowan Hospital. Maternal Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Gillam Twine, of Belvidere.

Paternal Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Waters Jr. of Hertford. Mrs. Waters is the former Betty Twine.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our appreciation and love to each of our friends and relatives for the many kind deeds rendered during the ill-ness and death of our live one.

For the visits, cards, flowers, food, prayers and every act of kindness shown during this time, we are very grateful.

Your expressions of love at this time has helped to lift our saddened hearts.

The family of Ibble P. Copeland