

Looking Back

OCTOBER 1939
By VIRGINIA WHITE
TRANSEAU

MORE INDUSTRY IS TOWN'S BEST IMPROVEMENT HOPE: Of ten people, suddenly stopped on Church Street and asked the simple question, "What would you like to see done toward improving Hertford," three entertained the same trend of thought, leaning toward more industry and more payrolls as the greatest improvement that possible came to Hertford. Here is what the Institute of Church Street Opinion discloses when the mind of the man in the street turns toward a better hometown in which to live: C.R. Holmes, attorney—"I would like to see a first-class combination stock and produce market in the city of Hertford; a place for all farmers in this section to come and sell their products." Mrs. V.A. Machman, insurance agent—"I would like to see more industry, more legitimate employment and increased payrolls." J.E. Newby, postal clerk—"I'd like to see the public library here in Hertford second to none in the section. Every community needs a good library, especially for reference. The local library commission is working now along that line." Beverly Tucker, insurance agent—"Nothing under the sun would improve Hertford more than a greater source of employment. I'd like to see more industry." Fred Chalk, WPA Supervisor—Several streets in Hertford are much too narrow for present-day traffic problems. I'd like to see Grubb Street widened to accommodate through truck traffic, to relieve the load of traffic on Dobb Street and through the business section. I'd like to see a White Way through the business section, and Church Street widened in the business district." L.W. Anderson, county agent—"Most of all I'd like to see some means of recreation provided in Hertford, especially for the children here they can enjoy supervised recreation." T.R. Ainsley, school principal—"The widening of Church Street in the business district. It's much too narrow now when cars park there." W.T. Elliott, salesman—"Decidedly, I'd like to see some more entertainment in Hertford. Anything in the town that will make for larger payrolls. F.N. Jessup, cotton ginner—"I'd like to see a nice attractive bathing beach constructed somewhere on the riverfront; a place to take visitors swimming when they remark on the beauties of the river."

DANCE AT WALKER'S: Miss Blanche Everett, Miss Ruth Davenport, Miss Gladys Hamrick, Miss Mary Towe and Walter Edwards entertained at a dance Friday evening at Walker's Ballroom.
