A "primer" for baby-sitters

For a precious few hours, nobody has more responsibility than your baby-sitter. But has anyone thought to prepare your baby-sitter in avoiding accidents, handling emergencies, or simply relating to your child? Good sitters watch both the child and the surroundings. Certainly no two children are exactly the same, but good sitters know predictable patterns of development in children. I'll send you through my Clipping Service, absolutely free, a "Primer for Baby-Sitters," if you ask. Have your Sitter read it and be well-informed, so you can rest easier. Write "Primer," Box 5051, Raleigh, N. C. 27607.

Letters To The Editor

Dear People of Perquimans County,

The Perquimans County High School Pirate Football Team would like to again thank our great fans for their support at our first state play-off game last Friday night in Weldon. It was a great spirit booster to have so many fans travel so far to cheer us on to victory. We would especially like to thank the following people who treated us to another fine steak dinner Monday night:

Bank of North Carolina, Wayland Byrum, Mack Bunch, Bill Chesson, Wesley Chesson, Johnny Corpew, Snooks Everett, Billy Harrell, Marvin Hunter, Douglas Layton, Donald Madre, Ed Nixon, Jimmy Scott, Gary Stubbins, Waldo Winslow, and Bryant Woodell.

Thanks again for your wonderful support. We look forward to seeing you in Clayton Friday night.

THE PERQUIMANS PIRATE FOOTBALL TEAM

To the Editor:

I regret to say that the school bond referendum was defeated on Nov. 8. And to the people that voted against it, I would like to say that I realize that taxes would indeed increase, and property owners would be paying the highest percentage, but wouldn't you, the people who once came here, rather pay for it now, than 10 years from now when taxes would be even higher? I think that the youth of today and tomorrow should have a good education and good atmosphere in which to learn. So to the people who voted no, I hope you will join us this winter and next spring to experience for yourself what we, the students at P.C.H.S. have to go through!

THANKS

It is impossible to call or visit the many friends that have supported and voted for me last Tuesday. Please be assured I do appreciate every effort you made. Please accept this note as my thanks until I say it personally.
