Refunds

Although every Christmas shopper may make an honest attempt to buy gifts that will be suitable and liked by the receiver, refund and exchanges are likely to follow-up the holiday season.

Refund and exchange policies vary from store to store and buyers should make sure they understand each store's policy beforehand.

All sales slips should be kept for proof of purchase.

Recipients should examine gifts immediately in order to avoid delays in returning items on which time limits have been imposed for exchanges and refunds.

RENEWED FINISH

Use clear lacquer in an aerosol can to brighten up old Christmas tree ornaments. It will make them glossier and less fragile.

Joy to the World

Let the glad tidings of the season ring out as we rejoice in the Christmas holiday. The best of wishes to all of our fine customers. We are grateful for your patronage.
