Library Update

By WAYNE HENRITZE

HOLIDAY SCHEDULE
The Perquimans County Library and all other libraries in the Pettigrew Regional Library System will be closed from Friday, Dec. 23 through Monday, Dec. 26.

No Bookmobile Run — The bookmobile run that would normally be made to the Bethel and Harvey's Point area will be delayed until its next normal run in three weeks on Jan. 13 due to the holiday schedule. Books will automatically be renewed until then.

No Story Hour — There will not be a story hour on Friday, Dec. 23 due to the holiday schedule.

MEMORIAL BOOKS
The following memorial books have been placed in the Perquimans County Library recently:

National Parks of the World in memory of Willard Colson; Our Vanishing Wilderness in memory of Joseph C. Gordan; Collecting Glass and The Encyclopedia of Antiques in memory of Mrs. Pauline W. Lane; Country Diary of an Edwardian Lady and The World of Mountain Flowers in memory of Mrs. Elizabeth M. Relfe; and Canal Days in America and Spirit Up the People in memory of Thomas Blount Sumner.

NEW BOOKS
Black Orchid by Nicholas Meyer is a novel set in Brazil's vast 19th century rubber plantations in which an adventurer tries to smuggle rubber trees out of Manaus, the opulent capital of trade.

Shall We Tell the President by Jeffrey Archer involves an assassination plot against President Edward Kennedy in 1983 and FBI efforts to uncover the plotters in time. Jackie Onassis quit the publisher as a result of this book.

Beggarman, Thief by Irwin Shaw continues the Jordache saga begun in Rich Man, Poor Man.

Avalanche Express by Colin Forbes is a suspense novel involving efforts by NATO spies to rescue an extremely valuable agent and spirit him out of Russia by train.

Attachments by Judith Rossner, the author of Looking for Mr. Goodbar, is a novel in which two women of opposite types marry a pair of Siamese twins.

Arrest Sitting Bull by Douglas C. Jones is a novelized version of attempts made to arrest Sitting Bull and thus head off an Indian rebellion on the badly managed reservations in the wake of the Custer massacre.

Doomsday: The Science of Catastrophe provides the odds on a wide range of catastrophes ranging from earthquakes to the explosion of the sun. The author contends that it is really not that orderly a universe.

The Japanese by Edwin Reischauer, a former ambassador, is an account of the Japanese as a country and as a people.

Playing God: Genetic Engineering and the Manipulation of Life is a survey of trends and issues in an increasingly controversial field.

The Arms Bazaar: From Lebanon to Lockheed is a study of the character and motivations of the men and companies involved in the arms trade.
