Homemakers hold gathering

The Whiteston Homemakers club members learned at their meeting Tuesday night in the home of Mrs. Evie Dale that as of Jan. 1, 1975 all new housing units built are required by North Carolina building code to have an automatic smoke detector. Mrs. Paige Underwood, County agent, gave a demonstration of the different types pointing out the good and the bad with slides to illustrate the point. She stressed the importance of the locale which should be near the sleeping area of the home.
The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Virginia White. She read from John 15:13 for devotional thoughts on "giving up life for others" and she read a salute to Hertford Firemen by an Edenton resident.
After the minutes of the January meeting and roll call several announcements were made. There will be a lampshade workshop in Washington, N.C. Feb. 28 at 10 a.m. A group will leave the county office at 8 a.m. to attend. Mrs. Lydie Hale will conduct a workshop on quilting at the county office building
