The Easter Seal Society of North Carolina is organizing a volunteer program to provide babysitting or companions for handicapped children and adults.

Volunteers must be at least 16 years old and should have an interest in people with special needs. Volunteers will receive training by Easter Seal staff on how to properly care for handicapped individuals. Anyone in-terested in becoming an Easter Seal volunteer, should call Karen Mc-Combe at 338-2167, Ext. 49. An application will be sent to you. If you have a family member needing a specially trained sitter or companion, please call Mrs. McCombe at the same number. She will be glad to explain the program in more detail, and send you an application.
