

Math and Science Fair scheduled

The fifth and sixth graders at Perquimans Union School will be displaying projects in a Math and Science Fair April 24-28 in the school's gym.

The purposes of the fair are: to exercise creativeness in showing what students have learned, to broaden student's interest, to show student's talents, and to gain experience in reviewing, organizing and presenting ideas.

Building the future through the educational system is the idea behind the Math and Science Fair. The themes are: "Patch Up

Your Math Skills" and "Science Is All Around Us." All projects will be judged on originality, artistic ability, dramatic quality, and the presentation of a mathematical or scientific thought.

Prizes will be awarded to the first, second, and third place winners in both the math and science categories. Others will receive a certificate of participation.

Mrs. Parthenia H. Hill, coordinator, extends an invitation to all interested persons to visit the Math and Science Fair.

PRODUCTIVE REHEARSAL — Members of the Perquimans High School Drama Club have been hard at work several weeks polishing their performance of "You Can't Take It With You" which will be presented to the public Saturday night in the high school auditorium.

Headstart holds several activities

Headstart participants visited the Norfolk Zoo April 10, accompanied by staff members and parents.

Those joining the children in the trip were staff members: Mrs. Joyce Felton, Mrs. Elaine Jordan, Mrs. Celestine Modlin, and Mrs. Debra Demery. Parents on the trip were: Mrs. Grace Ferebee, Mrs. Laura Hunter, Miss Jean White, Ms. Rosa Turner, Mrs. Alice Thatch, Mrs. Phyllis White, Mrs. Carolyn Eason, and Joe Willie Brothers.

Bus driver was Eric Holley.

Headstart parents took an education tour to Busch Gardens in Williamsburg, Va. on April 15. Those attending were: Mr. and Mrs. George Parker, Ms. Phyllis White, Mrs. Barbara Lane, Mrs. Alice Thatch, and Ms. Iris Lee.

The Headstart staff was invited to join the tour and two members did attend, Mrs. Joyce Felton and Mrs. Celestine Modlin.

Reggie Overton was driver.

READY AND WILLING TO ENTERTAIN — Drama Club members Cathy Newberry and Lynn Winslow display some pretty interesting facial expressions in rehearsal of the comical play. Prior to the performance for the public, the production will be staged for students in the local school system on Friday. Tickets to the 8 p.m. Saturday performance are $1 for adults and 50 cents for children. (Staff photos by Kathy M. Newbern)

The public is invited to visit the fair either day or evening to see what young people are doing in their high school vocational programs.

Play to highlight arts week

Perquimans County Schools Arts Week is being celebrated April 17-22 with a variety of activities.

Throughout the week, different forms of creative arts are being performed and demonstrated on the courthouse lawn. Along with this, an art show is being displaying in the downtown store windows of merchants. The displays consist of art work done by kindergarten through high school students.

The week-long celebration will draw to a close Saturday night when the Perquimans High School Drama Club presents, "You Can't Take It With You," by Moss Hart and George S. Kaufman. The play begins at 8 p.m. in the high school auditorium and admission will be $1 for adults and 50 cents for children.

The public is invited to join the students in this celebration of Schools Arts

Week. The local festivities are being sponsored by the Perquimans County High School Art Club.

COA to host open house

An open house for area high school business students will be held at College of the Albemarle on Thursday, April 27 at the Technical Center in Elizabeth City. The full morning of tours and demonstrations is being sponsored by the Phi Beta Lambda business club at the college.

All seniors who are enrolled in business courses in high schools within COA's seven-county service area have been invited to participate. Registration will begin at 8:45 a.m.

Lu Ann Chappell of Winfall, business instructor and PBL faculty advisor, said the visitors will have an opportunity to see and try the equipment used in the classroom to train COA students. These include a variety of modern office machines and the computer system that is presently employed for instructional purposes at the college.

She said instructors will be present to explain the operation of each type of equipment. They will also outline the courses of study offered by the business department.

Following a complete tour of the Technical Center facility, Mrs. Chappell said the guests will attend a hospitality hour. There, they will have a chance to meet and socialize with other COA students and faculty members.
