Ivey was given a 30-day sentence suspended for three years, a fine of $35 and cost. Butt received a 90-day sentence suspended for three years, a fine of $35 and cost. And Stallings was given a 90-day sentence suspended for three years, a fine of $150 and cost. Each defendant was ordered to remain on good behavior and not to be engaged in any misconduct during the period of suspended sentence;

Nelson Calvin Robinson was taxed with a fine of $15 and cost on a speeding charge.

on his own recognizance. Trial was set for Sept. 27 in Perquimans District Court.

James Clifton Overton of Rt. 1, Box 174, Hertford, was arrested by Patrolman R.K. Morris for driving under the influence (2nd offense) and no operator's license. Overton was taken before Magistrate Dail who set bond at $500. Unable to make bond, he was taken to Albemarle District Jail.

Trial date is Sept. 27 in Perquimans District Court.

A fire of suspicious origin that occurred Sept. 9 at approximately 1:11 p.m. resulted in the arrest of Bertha Elizabeth Foster, 21, of 208 King St., Hertford. Investigating officer Chief Marshall Merritt stated that the police and fire departments both answered the alarm, but when they arrived the fire had been extinguished.

Merritt said an investigation indicated that the fire had apparently been set during a domestic dispute. Ms. Foster was arrested by Patrolman Morris and Boyce on Sept. 11. She was taken before Magistrate Dail who released her on her own recognizance. She was charged with burning property (arson), a felony. A first appearance in Perquimans District Court is set for Sept. 27.
