How most colds are caught

Question: How are most colds caught? Answer: Specialists tell me most colds are spread by hand contact, rather than by aerosol exposures created by sneezes and such. Initial hand or skin contact between people is followed by self-inoculation, usually in the form of finger contact with either the nose or eye.

rest, eat well (especially lots of chicken soup!), and drink 6-8 glasses liquid daily.

White Honored in Food

A Perquimans County woman was honored recently for her service to the Expanded Food and Nutrition Program as a program aide.

Earlene White was presented a certificate of recognition for her eight years of service to the program.

The awards were made at a special meeting which celebrated the 10th anniversary of the EFNEP program in North Carolina. Sponsored by the North Carolina Agricultural Extension Service, the EFNEP program is in existence to teach low income families how to get the best nutritional value for their money.

The aides visit approximately 50 families each month, teaching lessons in food buying, food safety, canning and freezing, gardening, food preparation and family nutrition.

Heart drive to begin

With February nearing, the Heart Association announced information that should be close to everyone's heart. Mrs. Edgar White has been appointed as chairman for Perquimans County during the "Love" month's fund raising drive.

Anyone who wishes to give in memory of a loved one should contact Roy Chappell, Memory Chairman and treasurer, at Peoples Bank and Trust in Hertford.

Correction

We want to apologize for the two miscues in last week's edition, both on page two. Wayne Winslow is not president of the Perquimans County Jaycees. Archie Miller is the president. Winslow, however, is the chairman for the Awards Night Banquet.

The photograph of County Commissioner, Nowell, receiving the framed picture of the Hertford Court-house, should have stated that it was given to the county and not the town. It was given by the Norfolk Carolina Telephone Company. The shot of the court-house is the same as the one that appears on the covers of the latest telephone book.
