

Poole's Grove church holds Bible school

Poole's Grove Baptist Church held Vacation Bible School June 18 through 22nd. The theme was "Jesus, I'm His, He's Mine." Director was Earlene Sellers, Superintendent, William Turner; Pastor, Reverend J.L. Willis. Average daily attendance was 25 to 30.

VBS TEACHERS — The Poole's Grove Baptist Church Vacation Bible School Teachers worked with the children with several projects. Some of them were Bible Study, Arts and Crafts, Outdoor Games and Music.

Schools get lower insurance rates

Fire and lightning insurance rates for North Carolina's public schools are lower now than they were 30 years ago. More correctly, local school units who insure their facilities through the Division of Insurance in the Department of Education are recipients of these lower rates.

FISH HATCHERY TOUR — Children taking part in the EFNEP Youth Day Camp toured the Edenton National Fish Hatchery as part of the two-day activities.

Day camp goes south of the border

"Foods with a Mexican Flavor" was the theme for the EFNEP Activity Fun and Day Camp held at the County Office Building June 11-12. The group was taught and shown foods used in Mexico by Mrs. Earline White, Nutrition Aide with the Agricultural Service. She made tortillas as the main food, stressing nutritional value.

The group heard safety information, handicraft, and took a tour of the Edenton Fish Hatchery. Those attending the camp were: Xavier Everett, Sheena Stepney, Connie Forehand, Tracy Griffin, Ryan Johnson, Marcus Forehand, Dawn Downing, Thomas Vaughn, Jonathan Freshwater, Angelizue White, Demetria Felton, Karen Hite, Michael Thach, Rozane Shively, Bennie Everett, Guan Skinner, Ferrante Downing, Vivian Howell, Donald McClain, Carita Everette, Dennis Cowell, Milissa White, Harold Murrill, Maxine White, Garland Felton, and Rosa Sawyer.

Area students are outstanding

Thirteen Perquimans County residents were among the 125 College of the Albemarle students who maintained scholastic averages during the Spring Quarter which assured the inclusion of their names on the Dean's List.

Local and county residents receiving the special honor are: College Transfer — Janet I. Riddick, Kent B. White, and Paul L. White, Belvidere; Ingrid N. Ashley, Mary B. Forbes, Stephen D. Hammer, Denise G. McDonald, Mary C. Midgett, and Rita A. Rogerson, Hertford; Technical — Melvin J. Colson, Jr., Sandra R. Colson, and Joyce M. Winslow, Hertford; and Vocational — Rachael E. Hinton, Belvidere.

Winston E. Lane Jr., Rt. 1; Eva Ruth Ward, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Jarvis Ward, 211 North Church St.; and Roger Lewis White, son of Mrs. J.E. White Sr., P.O. Box 365, Hertford.

Lloyd Evans Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Evans Sr. of Rt. 1, Hertford, is the recipient of the $450 Jaycette Scholarship, which he will use to enter UNC-Chapel Hill to pursue a course of studies in the field of Pharmacy.

The scholarship was made possible by the proceeds from the Little Miss and Mister Perquimans Pageant which was held in May.

Stephen Weis graduated third in this year's class of the U.S. Naval Academy in Annapolis, Md. He is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Harry M. Smith of Hertford.

The students earning honors came to NCSU from 94 of North Carolina's 100 counties. The following are the Perquimans County Dean's List students, their fields of study and parent's name.

Catherine F. Evans, computer science, Mr. and Mrs. J.I. Evans, Rt. 1.

James C. Wilson, agronomy, Mr. and Mrs. J.C. Wilson Jr., Rt. 4; Timothy H. Wilson, mathematics, Mr. and Mrs. J.C. Wilson, Rt. 4.

William D. White, agricultural education, Mr. and Mrs. McMullen White, Rt. 1, Belvidere.

Insuring with the fund is entirely optional. A school unit may insure with a stock or mutual company instead. However, at the present time, 106 of the 145 local school units are insured with the fund and 28 of the community colleges and technical institutes are also insured through the fund.

According to the latest figures from the Division, the Perquimans School System had $3,319,200 worth of insurance in force as of June, 1978.

COA annual is here

The 1979 Beacon, annual publication at College of the Albemarle, has been received from the printer, according to an announcement this week from faculty year-book advisors.

May graduates and other students who have not received their copies may pick them up by contacting Diane Mikeal in Room 152 at the Technical Center in Elizabeth City.
