Band Day raises $3,000

Fun for kids of all ages

Some $3,000 was raised at Perquimans County Band Day on Saturday, enough, according to one Band Boosters member, to finish uniforming the high school marching band for the coming season. But besides the money, there were a whole bunch of good times going on at the Hertford Saddle Club show ring and little league ball park. Besides a horse show, there were all sorts of carnival style activities. Billie Sloop (r) paid $10 for the right to shove a pie into Hertford Mayor Bill Cox's face. Looks kind of good on him, doesn't it? Perquiman High School principal William Byrum (bottom left) took his turn in the dunking booth and ended up all wet. One of the highlights of the day was a greased pig chase (top right). Folks in three different age brackets got to chase the squealing little rascals around until they got caught, or somebody tuckered out. Another favorite was the fish fry. Roy Perkins (bottom right) helped out with the cooking.

Your Pharmacist Charles Woodard Says

Pot: Give kids the facts
Kids just naturally "mill around" together during long summer months, looking for excitement. Drug abuse opportunities are not infrequent, anymore, and young, impressionable kids are prone to experiment... Oftentimes, with "pot" (marijuana).
"On the street," pot is regarded as safe. But is it? Facts say, "No!"
Clue your kids into the truth about pot before they get involved. Clip this Editorial for a recent report on the facts. Read it to your kids. Send to my Clipping Service, Box 5051, Raleigh, NC 27650. It's the least precaution you can take this summer!
