

Christmas Ramble stop

The Erwin Perry home, located at Route 2, near Winfall, is one of six county homes slated for the annual Christmas Ramble Tour of Homes, sponsored by the Perquimans County Extension Office, on Tuesday,

Dec. 9, from 7 to 10 p.m. Other homes on the tour include Mr. Carlton Boyce's, located off Lake Road in the Parkville area; the William Skinner's, who live near Lowe's Beach; the Alvin Mizell's, of Snug Harbor; the Tony Short's, who reside at 506 Pennsylvania Avenue in Hertford; and the Jim Mills', who are located at 322 Grubb Street, also in Hertford. Maps and tickets ($2 for adults and $1 for students) may be obtained at any home on tour, or from the County Extension Office. Christmas rambles are also invited to the Extension Office following the tour for refreshments, where holiday demonstrations and displays will be presented.

'Littlest Angel' set at PCHS

"THE LITTLEST ANGEL" will be presented by the New Bern Civic Theatre, Inc. of New Bern, N.C. on Dec. 9, at 7:30 p.m., at the Perquimans County High School Auditorium.

"The Littlest Angel", by Patricia Gray, tells the story of a tiny angel boy in heaven who is very miserable. He has no small angel-friends with whom to play, and no familiar toys or belongings. "It's beautiful here," he exclaims looking around in awe. "But oh, so quiet!" he adds sadly.

The Littlest Angel, played by tiny Randy Wall, abruptly interrupts and flusters the Gatekeeper.

Things then go from bad to worse for the littlest Angel. He interrupts the meditations of the Patriarch Prophet, sings off key in the Heavenly Choir, falls off a cloud when he tries to fly. Because he is so unhappy, the Understanding Angel grants his wish for his little box of earthly treasures, which he had stored safely under his bed on Earth.

Then his love for the newborn Christ Child causes him to make the sacrifice of giving up his treasures as his special gift to the Christ Child. In spite of the pessimism of the other angels, and doubt and reservations by the Littlest Angel, himself, God favors his gift most of all!

The play will be directed by Ruth Waters, veteran actress and director. Among her credits is the directing of "The Sound of Music". Appearing in "The Littlest Angel" in addition to little Randy Wall, will be Gene Buck as the Gatekeeper, Alan Angel will be Fred Tracy, Bill Waters will be the Patriarch Prophet. Trumpeters will be Ralph Wall and Stoney Creech, the Matronly Angel will be Lynn Wall, and Betty Tracy

The New Bern Civic Theatre, Inc., has been organized since 1968.
