Howell named NCSU alumni chairman

Wayne Howell of Hertford has been appointed Perquimans County Chairman of North Carolina State University Alumni Association's 1982-83 Loyalty Fund Campaign.

Howell, a 1963 graduate of N.C. State's School of Agriculture, said: "There are 42 N.C. State alumni in Perquimans County, and we're counting on them to expand the endowment for our first unrestricted merit scholarship, The John T. Caldwell Alumni Scholars Program. Volunteers will be calling the alumni in the county between now and November 15 seeking their support in the form of association memberships."

The Alumni Association established the Caldwell Alumni Scholars Program in 1975. Twenty-four Caldwell Scholars are studying on campus this fall, each receiving a $3,000 annual scholarship, and all $11,500 active members of the association made this possible.

The association's major thrust is to further enhance the academic posture of N.C. State through the expansion of programs designed to attract top scholars and recognize outstanding teaching. The association's board of directors along with the new Chancellor Bruce R. Poulton are also seeking to expand the corps of advocates for NCSU and they have adopted a campaign slogan for 82-83 of "Share the Pride."

Support of alumni in Perquimans County and the surrounding area will be key in the association's efforts to reach a goal of $647,000 this year.

Albemarle Firemen's Association holds seminar

The Albemarle Fireman's Association sponsored a school on handling aircraft crashed October 27 at the Hertford Fire Station. The three hour class was conducted by Donald E. Bennett, safety inspector for the Federal Aviation Administration.

Bennett made the group aware of the proper administrative and safety procedures for handling civilian and military aircraft crashed.

The group attending totaled 85, representing the 20 different agencies from six counties. From Currituck, Crawford Township Fire Department was represented. Edenton Fire Department and Edenton-Chowan Rescue Squad represented Chowan County.

Attending from Gates County were LGates Fire Department, Eure Fire Department and Gatesville Sheriff's Department Pasquotank-Newland

Fire Department, Weeksville Fire Department, Pasquotank-Providence Fire Department and the U.S. Coast Guard Fire Department attended from Pasquotank.

Agencies representing Perquimans County were Bethel Fire Department, Durants Neck Fire Department, Hertford Fire Department, Winfall Fire Department, Perquimans Sheriff's Department, Perquimans County Rescue Squad and the Holiday Island Security Force.

The CRSwell and Roper Fire Departments attended from Washington County.

According to Parker Newbern, president of the Albemarle Firemen's Association, this is just one of many training schools offered by the association showing different agencies working together and strengthening its motto, "Unity Through Mutual Aid."

Band Boosters hold scrap metal drive

The Perquimans County Band Boosters will be beginning a scrap metal drive for additional funds to support the band. Ray Lassiter, project chairman, asked everyone to begin accumulating items to be included in the drive such as copper, scrap iron and aluminum cans.

Collections for the drive may be turned in or will be picked up between January 15 and February 15.

The Boosters are continuing with the fruit sales. An initial count was held Monday with the sales continuing until December 1. Delivery of the fresh fruit will be the second week in December.

Mr. Ziembra, band director, gave a band schedule for the upcoming months. The band will march in the Christmas parade on December 5 as well as present concerts on December 7 and December 21.

Their annual Chicken Fry Supper has been set for February 27.

Your continued support for the band's activities is appreciated.
