Senior citizens are treated to Christmas sweets and presents during a Christmas party held at the Nutrition Site last week.

Cook's corner

EDNA WOLVERTON

What could be more satisfying after the hustle and bustle of Christmas Day than a hearty bowl of oyster stew served piping hot with lots of homemade bread? Sounds special to me!

I feel that oysters deserve real butter and cream, so don't skimp on this recipe!

OYSTER STEW

2 c. oyster liquor
2 c. heavy cream
4 T. butter

2 T. flour
celery salt pepper
parsley flakes
1 qt. oysters

Melt butter. Add flour and stir in cream and oyster liquid to make a thick base. Season with pepper (white if you have it), celery salt, and parsley flakes. Add oysters and simmer until done — about five minutes. Dot with butter — sprinkle with paprika and enjoy.

Machinery Act of 1971, G.S. 105-308, duty to list; penalty for failure

Every person in whose name any property is to be listed under the terms of this sub-chapter shall list the property with the tax supervisor or proper list taker within the time allowed by law on an abstract setting forth the information required by this sub-chapter.

In addition to all other penalties prescribed by law, any person whose duty it is to list any property who willfully fails or refuses to list the same within the time prescribed by law shall be guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500.00) or imprisonment not to exceed six months. The failure to list shall be prima facie evidence that the failure was willful.

Any person who removes or conceals property for the purpose of evading taxation or who aides or abets the removal or concealment of property for the purpose of evading taxation shall be guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500.00) or imprisonment not to exceed six months.

PROPERTY TAX RELIEF FOR ELDERLY AND PERMANENTLY DISABLED PERSONS

G.S. 105-277.1 excludes from property taxes the first eight thousand five hundred dollars ($8,500) in assessed value of certain property owned by North Carolina residents aged 65 or older or totally and permanently disabled whose disposable income does not exceed nine thousand dollars ($9,000). The exclusion covers real property occupied by the owner as his or her permanent residence and/or household personal property used by the owner in connection with his or her permanent residence. Disposable income includes all moneys received other than gifts or inheritances received from a spouse, lineal ancestors, or lineal descendants.
