Agenda

Lamaze class begins in February

Prepared childbirth classes will be offered in Hertford by Kate Shales, beginning in February. The classes, often referred to as "Lamaze classes" will offer an understanding of pregnancy and birth, coping techniques of breathing and relaxation for labor; films and discussion.

Classes will be held one night a week for 6 to 7 weeks. There will be a fee for class materials.

Classes are open to all expectant parents — single mothers as well as couples. For more information and to register, please contact Kate Shales at 426-8387.

COA sponsors financial aid class

January is one of the most important months of the year for students whose enrollment in college in the fall of 1983 hinges upon whether or not they receive financial aid, according to Lloyd Armstrong, student financial aid director at College of The Albemarle.

financial aid oriented workshops for parents and students during the month. The seminars will be held on the COA campus and at high schools in Gates and Perquimans counties.

At 7:30 p.m. on Jan. 20, Armstrong and Belinda Patterson, COA admissions director, will be at the Perquimans County High School auditorium in Hertford.

The meetings coincide with National Student Financial Aid Awareness Month. Recognizing an increasing need for financial assistance to further studies beyond high school, Gov. James B. Hunt, Jr. also has proclaimed Jan. 24-29 as Student Financial Aid Awareness Week in North Carolina.

Extension plans cotton meeting

There will be a cotton up-date meeting to access the interest of county farmers on growing cotton in 1983, on Monday, February 24 at 6:30 p.m. at the Perquimans County Extension Office Building. Please call 426-5428 if you plan to attend.

Machinery Act of 1971, G.S. 105-308, duty to list; penalty for failure

Every person in whose name any property is to be listed under the terms of this sub-chapter shall list the property with the tax supervisor or proper list taker within the time allowed by law on an abstract setting forth the information required by this sub-chapter.

In addition to all other penalties prescribed by law, any person whose duty it is to list any property who willfully fails or refuses to list the same within the time prescribed by law shall be guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500.00) or imprisonment not to exceed six months. The failure to list shall be prima facie evidence that the failure was willful.

Any person who removes or conceals property for the purpose of evading taxation or who aides or abets the removal or concealment of property for the purpose of evading taxation shall be guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500.00) or imprisonment not to exceed six months.

PROPERTY TAX RELIEF FOR ELDERLY AND PERMANENTLY DISABLED PERSONS

G.S. 105-277.1 excludes from property taxes the first eight thousand five hundred dollars ($8,500) in assessed value of certain property owned by North Carolina residents aged 65 or older or totally and permanently disabled whose disposable income does not exceed nine thousand dollars ($9,000). The exclusion covers real property occupied by the owner as his or her permanent residence and/or household personal property used by the owner in connection with his or her permanent residence. Disposable income includes all moneys received other than gifts or inheritances received from a spouse, lineal ancestors, or lineal descendants.
