Library sponsors open house May 15

The Perquimans County Library invites you to an open house and reception Sunday, May 15 from 1-5 p.m.

Dr. William Neal Conoley, author of WATERFOWL HERITAGE: NORTH CAROLINA'S DECOYS AND GUNNING LORE, will present a program on decoys and North Carolina's waterfowl heritage at the library. The 2 p.m. program is free to the public.

A wide variety of Perquimans County crafts will be on display, woodwork, pottery, toys and dolls, brooms, and handiwork of all kinds. Come and join us. An Interesting Note Some of the differences in regional tastes in books showed up in a recent Gallup Survey. 855 book buyers were surveyed and among the most popular categories were biographies, books on history, and reference or instructional books.

•Home and garden how-to books were much more popular in the South than elsewhere.

•Books on money and investment were much more avidly bought in the Midwest than the South.

•Biography and autobiography was overwhelmingly favored in the West than the East.

•And of course, Religious books found their greatest appeal in the South. Only reference books or instructional books were more frequently purchased.
