Perquimans Superior Court news

A Pasquotank County funeral home manager, charged with 18 counts of embezzlement, pleaded no contest to five counts of the misdemeanor of misappropriation of partnership funds in Perquimans County Superior Court held in Hertford May 10.

Superior Court Judge Henry L. Stevens III ordered Dennis J. Stallings, 28, of Elizabeth City to pay $10,000 in restitution to the owners of Lowe and Stallings Funeral Home in Hertford, according to Assistant District Attorney Michael Johnson.

Stallings was also given a 10 year suspended prison sentence and placed on probation for five years.

Stallings was charged with embezzling over $15,000 in burial fees while managing the Hertford funeral home.

Stallings was indicted in Perquimans County September 27 following a three month investigation by the Hertford Police Department and the State Bureau of Investigation.

The owners of the funeral home, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Wood Lowe had reported the loss of funds to the Hertford police.

In other Superior Court decisions:

•Wallace Hinton, 55, of Route 1, Hobbsville, pleaded guilty to incest or a sexual offense by a substitute parent and received a 4 1/2 year sentence with the North Carolina Department of Corrections. Work release was recommended.

•Ervin Isaac Bryant received a 3 year prison sentence after he pleaded guilty to felonious breaking and entering. The sentence is to run concurrently with a sentence Bryant is now serving.

•Charlie Fleetwood Wilson was ordered to pay restitution to Albemarle Tire Service and was sentenced to 3 years with the N.C. Department of Corrections. Wilson pleaded guilty to felonious breaking and entering and larceny.

•Bruce Elroy Twine pleaded guilty to assault on a female and received a 90 day sentence, suspended for 2 years.

•Kathryn Lamb Cochriel pleaded no contest to assault and prayer for judgment was continued upon payment of cost of court.

•William Hardy received a 6 months sentence suspended for two years with supervised probation after pleading guilty to assault on a female. Hardy was ordered to pay a $100 fine and cost of court.

•Sammy Cohen pleaded guilty to trespassing and failure to appear in court and was given a suspended 6 months sentence and ordered to pay a $100 fine and cost of court.

•Barbara A. Felton and Charles Dennis Morgan pleaded guilty to felonious breaking and entering a motor vehicle and both were sentenced to two years in prison, suspended for three years and were ordered to each pay $10.50 in restitution. Charges of unauthorized use of a conveyance were dismissed.

In traffic cases:

•Robert Lee Bass pleaded guilty to driving under the influence and received a six month sentence suspended for two years. Bass was ordered to surrender his driver's license and to complete the traffic safety school.

•Donald Holman pleaded guilty to reckless driving, driving under the influence of alcohol, driving 71 mph in a 55 mph zone and speeding to elude arrest. He received a six month sentence suspended for two years and was fined $250 plus cost of court. Holman was also ordered to attend the Alcohol and Drug education school.

•Ricky Dail received a six month sentence suspended for two years after pleading guilty to driving under the influence. Dail was also ordered to surrender his drivers license and was told to complete the Alcohol and Drug Education school within 90 days.

•Clarence Edward Brown pleaded guilty to driving 85 mph in a 55 mph zone, driving under the influence, attempting to elude arrest and driving while his license was revoked. He received a one year sentence, suspended for three years and was fined $500 and cost of court. He was ordered not to operate a vehicle in the state until properly licensed and to successfully complete the Alcohol and Drug school.

•Carolyn Raines pleaded guilty to driving 67 mph in a 55 mph zone and driving while license was revoked. She was sentenced to one year in prison, suspended for two years and ordered to surrender her license and pay a $500 fine and cost of court.

•Willie Garcia Felton pleaded guilty to simple assault, resisting arrest and assault on a female. He received a 6 month sentence, suspended for 12 months. He was ordered to pay a $100 fine and cost of court plus $47 in restitution.
