

Superior Court convenes in Perquimans County last week

During last week's session of Perquimans County Superior Court, the Honorable Herbert O. Phillips, III, heard the following cases:

Charlie Welch was given a 6 month sentence after being found guilty of assault inflicting serious injury. His sentence was suspended for two years with two years probation. He was given a $200 fine and told to pay the cost of court.

Welch was told not to assault Henry Skinner for two years and to pay to the Clerk of Superior Court, $226, representing one half of the hospital bill incurred by Skinner, which is to be disbursed to Chowan Hospital by the Clerks Office.

He was ordered to pay $300 the day of his trial and to pay the remainder at a rate of $50 per month, beginning September 15, 1983, and on the 15th of each month following. His fine, cost, and restitution is to be paid under the supervision of his probation officer; Odell Parker pled guilty to communicating threats. The court continued a prayer for judgment on the condition that the defendant remain away from the residence of Mrs. Nellie Malory and the residence of Mr. Robert Mallory, and that he not go about or communicate in any way with Mrs. Nellie Malory or Mr. Robert Mallory for a period of two years from and after his court date. He was ordered to pay the cost of court;

The simple assault charge against Nellie Malory, was dismissed.

A prayer for judgment was allowed in the simple assault charge against Annette Whedbee under the condition that she stay away from Debbie Jean Parker and not communicate directly with her for two years. Whedbee was told to pay to the Office of the Clerk of Superior Court, $52 in restitution for medical costs incurred by the prosecuting witness, and to pay the cost of court;

Billy Nixon was given a prayer for judgment after pleading guilty to violating a town ordinance, under the conditions that he safely confine his dogs on his premises or on a leash when off his premises, and that he pay the cost of court.

The trespassing charge against George Willie Parker, Sr., was dismissed.

The following cases were continued to the October 10, 1983 session of Perquimans County Superior Court:

Clayton Llewellyn Godwin — Obtaining property by false pretense; Larry Wayne Sanders — Conspiracy to burn a building and burning a building; and Victor Parker, alias Tony Parker — simple assault, and two counts of assault on a female.

Probation violations by Clarence Edward Brown, were continued to the October 10, 1983, session of Perquimans County Superior Court.

The following cases were also continued until the October 10, 1983 session of Perquimans County Superior Court:

John Askew — felonious possession of a firearm by a convicted felon; Victor (NMN) Whitehurst — breaking and entering, larceny and possession; Ray Whidbee — felonious larceny and possession; Kenny Petteway — felonious larceny and possession; and Michael Archie Wilson — felonious larceny and possession.

In the July 20 session of Perquimans County District Court, the Honorable Grafton Beamon heard the following cases:

Jerry Kerney Felton, pled guilty to an inspection violation and received a $25 fine plus the cost of court;

Edward McKnight, Jr., pled guilty to an inspection violation by power of attorney and was fined $25 plus the cost of court;

Tony Wendell Coffield pled guilty to speed greater than reasonable and was fined the cost of court;

Jennings Bryan Tingle, Jr., pled guilty to speeding, 68 mph in a 55 mph zone, and received a $5 fine plus the cost of court;

Earl Jeffrey Fultz pled guilty to speeding, 74 mph in a 55 mph zone, and received a $20 fine plus the cost of court;

Cecil Hoguse Beasley pled guilty to fishing with a hook and line without a license and was fined $25 plus the cost of court;

David Benjamin Harrell, pled guilty to carrying a concealed weapon and received a $20 fine plus the cost of court. His weapon was confiscated and turned over to the Sheriff of Perquimans County to be sold;

Karin Sue Moore, pled guilty to driving under the influence and received a 90 day sentence, suspended with unsupervised probation for two years, a $250 fine plus the cost of court, and was told to surrender her operators license to the Clerk of Superior Court and not to operate a motor vehicle in North Carolina until duly licensed;

George Edward Holley pled not guilty of interfering with electric meters. The case was continued to the August 3, 1983 session of Perquimans County District Court;

Ronald Wilkins, guilty of simple assault, received a $25 fine plus the cost of court.

Marline E. Allenman was found guilty of driving without a valid
