ning, no injuries were reported.

The accident occurred when a 1977 Oldsmobile, driven by Brenda Cox Rea of 901 Roanoke Court, Jamesville, was struck from behind as she was attempting to make a left turn from U.S. 17 Business to N.C. 37.

The second vehicle, a 1983 Oldsmobile, was driven by Elizabeth Billups Burton of 101 Railroad Avenue, Hertford.

According to Lothian, who investigated the accident, the Rea vehicle sustained $450 in damages and the Burton vehicle, $800.

Williams (Continued from page 1)

said he participated in all sports. "That's one of the reasons I went into recreation," he said.

Among Williams' duties will be working with the public, planning and publicizing the recreation programs, supervising recreation activities and all administrative work.

Williams goals for the county recreation program include more participation of middle-aged people as well as children.

"I'd like to see something done with the waterfront. I'd also like to have more volunteers - that's what will keep this program going," said Williams.

"I feel very lucky in getting this job - being right out of school," he added.

The first subway in the U.S. opened in Boston in 1897.
