The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd R. Morgan of Winfall. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Symons Jr. of Winfall.

The leg-o-mitten sleeves of sheer organza were accented with Venice lace and seed pearls with cuffs of english net, also accented with Venice lace and pearls.

The skirt, featuring a sheer organza overlay, swept into a cathedral train edged in Venice lace on a delicate ruffle attached to the hemline.

Her veil of illusion, fell to cathedral length from a juliet cap which complimented her gown. It was also lavished with seed pearls and matching lace.

Deana Lynn Morgan was maid of honor for her sister. Bridesmaids were Holly Lane of Greenville, Patti White of Hertford, Barbara Symons of Greenville, sister of the groom, and Cathy Symons of Raleigh, sister-in-law of the bridegroom.

Braised pork loin

A delicious dish with a minimum of preparation is this pork loin braised in milk. The meat is fork tender and the sauce is brown and nutty flavored. Serve with steamed green beans and wild rice.

Pork Braised in Milk
2½-3 lb. pork roast
1 Tbsp. vegetable oil
1 Tbsp. butter
salt
freshly ground pepper
2½ cups milk
Heat oil and butter in a heavy casserole or Dutch Oven. Brown pork on all sides, season with salt and pepper.

Slowly pour 2½ cups milk over pork, cover with a lid leaving it a little to the side so the steam can escape. Cook slowly 1½-2 hours turning several times.

When done remove pork to platter, stir to smooth out the sauce, loosening the brown bits in the bottom of the pan. Slice and pour sauce over the meat.

Experiment with the following marinade for pork loin roast. The meat should marinate at room temperature for several hours prior to cooking (or you can actually soak it in the marinade overnight in the refrigerator).

The following proportions are for a 5 lb. pork loin roast — of course you may divide or double according to the pound weight. Serve with wild rice and fresh steamed green beans or broccoli.

P. A.'s Pork Roast
5 lb. pork loin roast
1 can consommé
1 soup can Soy sauce
3 cloves garlic, minced
3-4 Tbsp. brown sugar

Cook roast in marinade in a slow oven (325) for three hours. It is most important that you baste the roast constantly. If the roast starts to brown too fast, cover lightly with foil. Serves 4-6.
(Have a butcher remove the rib bones — barbecue them for use at a later time. Use the boneless portion in this dish.)
