

Local band students selected

Six Perquimans County Band students were selected for the North Carolina Bandmasters Eastern District Bands.

In the Senior High Symphonic Band, Tonya Walker and David Johnson were chosen. Walker, a sophomore at Perquimans High School, was selected as a clarinet player; Johnson, also a sophomore, was selected as a french hornist.

In the Junior High Symphonic Band, grades eight and nine, Lynnette Riddick was chosen. Riddick, a clarinet player is a freshman at Perquimans High.

In the Junior High Concert Band, Maria Trent, Lee Cooper and Paul Lane were chosen.

Trent, a clarinet player is a freshman at Perquimans High; Cooper, a trumpet player is an eighth grade student at Perquimans Union School; and Lane, a percussionist, is also a freshman at Perquimans High School.

All of these students will take part in a Band Clinic in Greenville at the ECU School of Music on February 3 and 4; giving a concert on Saturday night before returning home.

Receives credentials

Cheryl Anita Jones, daughter of Mrs. Mary Jones and the late William B. Jones of Winfall, has recently received her credentials as a Registered Record Administrator (R. R. A.).

To obtain these credentials, one must pass a national registration exam given by the American Medical Record Association. These credentials are recognized throughout the entire health care industry.

Presently Jones is employed by the Sandhills Center for Mental Health, Mental Retardation & Substance Abuse Services where she is the Medical Record Manager of a five-county catchment area.

A recent graduate of East Carolina University, she is residing in Southern Pines, N. C.

Named to Deans List

Ginger Stallings, sophomore at Meredith College in Raleigh, was on the Dean's list for the fall semester, maintaining a 3.2 grade point average for that term.

Ginger is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Garland Stallings of Belvidere.

Tradition associates pearls with tears and opals with bad luck.

Cards of Thanks

I would like to thank everyone for their nice comments about my painting display which was in the Blanchard Building window in October and November.

I also would like to thank C.O.A. and my instructor, Rebecca Spivey for sponsoring and teaching the class.

Mrs. Maude Ellis

We wish to thank our friends and relatives, for the cards, food, flowers, donations and many deeds of kindness shown to us during the illness and death of our loved one.

We are grateful for your expressions of sympathy.

The Family of Laura M. Lowe

I would like to express my sincere thanks to my relatives, neighbors and friends for all the nice things they did for me while I was in Leigh Memorial Hospital and since my return home. For the many cards, the beautiful flowers, the food that was taken to my home, the phone calls, the visits and especially your prayers, to each and every one of you I say thank you.

Sincerely, Medlin U. Hoskins
