Quilters to Meet

Perquimans Quilters will meet Monday, March 26, at 2:00 p.m. at the County Office Building. Members are asked to bring scissors, needles, etc., as work will begin on the project for the 400th Anniversary Celebration. Members are also reminded to bring something for the library display in April.

Open Door to Meet

A business meeting for the Open Door will be held Monday, March 26, at 7:30 p.m. at St. Victor's Church.

NAACP to Meet

The monthly meeting of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People will meet Monday night, March 26, at 7:30 p.m. at First Baptist Church.

Pat Harrell, superintendent of Perquimans County Public Schools, will be one of the special guests. There will be a question and answer period about the bond issue. Please come. Rev. J.H. Londer, will be host pastor and president.

Craft Festival Set

The Annual Spring Craft Festival is being held April 14, 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. at the Edenton National Guard Armory next to the airport in Edenton.

The festival, sponsored by the National Guard Ladies Auxiliary, will feature 40 booths, stocked with a large variety of handmade craft items. Crafts people from the surrounding area and Virginia will be participating in this event.

Lots of gift ideas for those special occasions will be available. There will also be a concession stand. Admission is free.

Porkfest Slated

The Fourth Annual Northeastern North Carolina Porkfest will take place on May 5 at the Jaycee Fairgrounds in Elizabeth City.

Many pork delectables will be served, such as sliced and chopped Bar-B-Q, spare ribs, ham biscuits, chitterlings, sausage sticks, French fried sweet potatoes, cole slaw, pork stew, Bar-B-Q'd potatoes, hush puppies and beverages of your choice.

Music, politicians and news media will abound and a good time is going to be had by all!

Tickets will be sold on a first come basis. For more information call 338-0884.

Green Thumb workers honored

Seven Green Thumb workers were recognized at a reception Wednesday morning, March 14, at the Senior Citizens Center in Hertford.

Mayor Bill Cox and Senior Center Director Patti White presented Outstanding Older Worker Achievement Awards to Nellie Manley who works at Perquimans Union School; Eunice Cale, Senior Center; Howard Reed, Recreation Department; William Modlin, Marion Frierson, Willie Brooks and Doris McKnight, all who work at Hertford Grammar School.

Green Thumb workers are 55 or older and work with a sponsor for 20 hours per week. They are paid through state and federal funds.

This program is designed to employ older productive workers. The slogan of this program is "55 is the speed limit, not an age limit."

If you desire further information on this program, contact the Senior Citizens Center on Grubb St. in Hertford, or call 426-5404.

Area I District craft workshop slated

The Annual Area I Craft Workshop, conducted by the N. C. Agricultural Extension Service, will be held on May 1 & 2 from 9:30-4:00 p.m. at the Pasquotank County Agricultural Extension Building in Elizabeth City.

Counties participating are: Camden, Chowan, Currituck, Dare, Gates, Perquimans and Pasquotank and Hertford Counties.

The purpose of the workshops is to train leaders to teach groups such as adult, 4-H and youth groups, recreational craft leaders, leaders from Extension Homemakers club and others.

These leaders will return to their respective counties and teach others what they have learned. The training will also enable participants to develop skills to produce crafts for supplemental income, perpetuate heritage crafts, help people make satisfying use of leisure time, and enhance the life of families and individuals.

The deadline to register is April 2 on a first-come first-served basis due to limited space in each class. Registration forms are available from your local county Agricultural Extension Service located in the above counties.

Creative crafts to be taught by area and state craftsmen are:

- Pine Needle Craft — instructor, Mrs. Ernest Smith
- Inkle Weaving — instructor, Mrs. Jessica Spruill Tice
- Lap Quilting — instructor, Mrs. Jane M. Taylor
- Round Baskets — instructor, Mrs. Elizabeth Byrum
- Seminole Patchwork — instructor, Effie Maude Harris
- Blocking, Preparing & Framing Needlework — instructor, Stephanie Bateman

Calligraphy — instructor, Marlene Upton
Baskets (Gizzard or Egg) — instructor, Tom Owens.

Stuffed Toys — instructor, Beth Lewis

Trapunto — instructor, Lydia Hale
Pulled Thread Embroidery — instructor, Miss Audrey Tuttle
Stenciling — instructor, Mrs. Julia Bryant

For more information concerning the workshop, contact your Home Economics Extension Agent or call Jessica Tice, Assoc. Home Economics Extension Agent in Currituck County at 232-2261.

I LOST 60 LBS. IN 17 WEEKS AND WENT FROM A SIZE 18 TO A SIZE 10 SAYS CARLA RHODES OF COLUMBIA

Before starting the program at Professional Weight Loss Clinic, I was having lots of problems, one was breathing. I tried different diets but couldn't accomplish much and always gained it right back. Now after losing 60 lbs. I can breath good and feel great. I have learned a lot and couldn't have done it without the help of the staff. I advise anyone with a weight problem to find help at the Professional Weight Loss Clinic.
