Public hearing set

A state Department of Transportation (NCDOT) proposal to four-lane a 5.7-mile section of US-17 between Hertford and Woodville in Perquimans County will be discussed at a public meeting June 4. The meeting will be held from 3 to 5 p.m. and from 6 to 8 p.m. in the Perquimans County Courthouse.

Courthouse.

The public is invited to attend, ask questions or make comments about the proposed project. Additional questions, statements or comments may be submitted to C.D. Adkins, manager of planning and research, NCDOT, P.O. Box 25201, Raleigh, N.C. 27611.

Dance workshop slated

An eight-week summer dance workshop, directed by Marsha Atkins, will begin on June 17 and run through August 7. Classes will be held at the Hertford Lions Club Building.

Classes are being offered in ballet, tap, jazz, and pointe. A $5.00 registration fee is required and will apply to fall registration.

The summer dance workshop is for the serious student who wishes to stay in shape through the summer and maybe get ahead for the fall-winter season.

The building is air-conditioned. Anyone six years of age and over will be accepted.

To register phone Marsha Atkins at 338-1015.

Grand Jury hands down indictments

By TIM BRYANT

Eight indictments involving sexual offenses were handed down by the Perquimans County Grand Jury in the May session of Superior Court.

Marvin Ray Etheridge of 214 South Church Street was charged with two counts of sexual offense.

Mary Lucille Etheridge of 214 South Church Street was charged with three counts of accessory after the fact to sex offense.

Curtis Edward Etheridge, also of 214 South Church Street, was indicted on a charge of sexual offense and on two counts of rape.

The Honorable Judge William Griffin presided over the Superior Court hearings for the week of May 6, 1985. The following decisions were made: —Fred Harris, alias Floyd A. Grace, was convicted of selling and delivering a controlled substance. A charge of obtaining property under false pretenses was dismissed.

—Denise Diane Banks was found not guilty of assault with a deadly weapon with intent to kill or inflict serious injury.

—Darryl Craig Colson was charged with first degree burglary, but pled guilty to felonious breaking and entering and felonious larceny after breaking and entering. Colson was sentenced to a three-year term at the North Carolina Department of Corrections for each conviction.

In cases related to Colson's, Michael Duke Ivey and Steven White were both charged with first degree burglary. Ivey received a three year sentence for felonious breaking or entering and a three year sentence for felonious larceny after breaking and entering. White was sentenced to a two year sentence for the same crimes.
