Morgan named director

STAMFORD, CT—Thomas L. Morgan has been named director, planning and analysis by Champion International Corporation. In this position he is responsible for providing planning, marketing, and business analysis support to the company's business management function.

Mr. Morgan joined Champion in 1976 as a cost accountant with the Company's Roanoke Rapids, North Carolina, paper mill. He was named accounting manager in 1978, systems coordinator in 1980, and manager of economic analysis in 1983.

Previously, he served with the U.S. Navy for six years. He is member of the National Association of Accountants and the Paper Industry Manufacturers Association where he also served for two years on the management information systems committee.

He received an associate degree in allied health from George Washington University and a B.S. in business from the Atlantic Christian College in 1976. The same year he was awarded the Wilson Chamber of Commerce Award from the Wilson, North Carolina, business community.

A native of Perquimans County, Mr. Morgan and his wife reside in Monroe, Connecticut. They have two children. He currently participates in both the Monroe Parent Teachers Organization and the Cub Scouts.

Champion, a leading paper and forest products company, is a major manufacturer of printing and publication papers, packaging, and building materials.

Volunteers sought for home-delivered meals program

If you have a desire to help provide an important community service, this is for you. The Albemarle Commission, located in Hertford, operates Home-Delivered Meals Programs in Columbia, Edenton, Elizabeth City, Hertford, Plymouth and the Swan Quarter area.

Through this program many of the area's homebound elderly receive a hot, nutritious lunch each day, delivered by a team of dedicated and caring volunteers.

Delivering meals is a very rewarding experience. It takes less than one hour of your time each day you volunteer. When and how often you volunteer is completely up to you.

What about it? Do you have one hour you can give? Then join the team. Become a Home-Delivered Meals Volunteer. Call the coordinator for your area today.

Perquimans Class of 1948 holds reunion

Members of the Perquimans County High School Class of 1948 and their guests enjoyed a reunion at Sound View Restaurant on Saturday, June 29. This was the third reunion held during the 37 years since their graduation.

A social hour was held from 6:30 to 7:30, followed by dinner. The menu consisted of ham, turkey, clam strips, yams, string beans, June peas, slaw, rolls, lemon or chocolate pie, tea and coffee. Leon Lane gave the invocation.

The class colors of red and white were carried out in decorating with red program booklets, red candle holders, red napkins and mixed flower arrangements for the centerpiece.

Howard Broughton, class president, presided. He gave each member and guest the opportunity to give a brief summary of what had happened since the last reunion 13 years ago. The committee also invited the class members who started out in high school but did not graduate for various reasons.

Our class mascot, Dianne Hurdle Riddick, and husband Donald, were invited and recognized.

Willard Coepland read the class history to refresh the memories of our former classmates whom had not been with us before. Jean Hurdle Vick, class poet, read a poem she composed in her senior year.

There were pictures of annuals, high school snapshots and grandchildren on display.

Favors and door prizes were donated by various merchants from Hertford and Edenton. One of the class members, Hillary Scaff, took pictures. Bryan O'Leary presented music of the 40's through the 80's.

Mrs. C.R. Holmes, senior teacher, sent her best regards to the class since she was unable to attend. Also, Mildred Skinner Lambden of Tennessee called and sent her regards. Letters were read by John and Elizabeth Ward of those who acknowledged they were unable to attend.

Those attending from out of town were: Mrs. Myrtle N. Elliott Glur, Columbus, Neb.; Ann Proctor Mass, Pewaukee, Wis.; Doris Butt Carpenter, Great Falls, Va.; and Sister Norma Butt Perry, New Hope.

Also, Jean Hurdle Vick and husband, Windsor, N.C.; Leon Lane and wife Mickey, Chesapeake, Va.; Howard Broughton and wife Pete, Southern Pines, N.C.; Margie Davenport Sawyer and husband Russell, Suffolk, Va.; Lillie Raye Chappell Aske and husband Floyd, Eure, N.C.; and Carl Dail and wife Gail, Creswell.

Others included, Maywood Chappell and wife Rita, Hobbsville; Mary Julia Harrell Parrish and husband Yates, Edenton; Kathryn Lane Byrum and husband Carroll, Edenton; and Ventrice Chappell and husband William, Elizabeth City.

Still others were, Emmet Lane and wife Norma, Elizabeth City; Anna Faye Copeland Stallings and husband Glenwood of Elizabeth City; and Catherine Jordan Markham and her sister Dorothy J. Moore, Maryland.

Those from the Hertford area attending the reunion were John Ward and Elizabeth Byrum Ward; Horace Webb and Peggy Cooke-Webb; Eloise Godwin Landing and husband, William (Bubba), Emmett Elmore and wife Jeanette; Willard Copeland and wife Christine; and Madelyn Phillips Long and husband Emmett.

Others from Hertford included H.B. Miller and wife Sylvia; Hillary Scaff and wife Barbara;

Lorraine Harris Simpson and husband Lester; Eula Smith and husband Josiah Smith; Chester Winslow and wife Peggy; Dianne Hurdle Riddick and husband Donald; and Gaynell Miller Gregory.
