Bray claims second season win

In a 50-lap event Jay Bray of Elizabeth City, took his second win of the season at Dixieland. Bray roared past leader Bert Culpepper of Chesapeake who blew an engine on lap 48.

J.D. Sanders of Elizabeth City took second place, while Brian Keaveny of Chesapeake finished in the third position. Bubba Adams, sportsman driver of the NASCAR Circuit came in fourth and Sid Carmine of Poquoson took fifth position.

In the economy street division it was the seventh win for Grover Sanders of South Mills. Sanders led wire to wire with John Staton of Chesapeake in second and Virgil Frazier of Elizabeth City finishing third. Jim Burbage of Bath came in fourth, while Greg Gregory of Shiloh took the fifth position. Sanders is in second place in the points standing.

The Super Street Division ran a twin 20 night. The winners of the first event were inverted to start in the rear of the field in the second 20-lap event for this division this week. In the first event, Earl Freeland took the lead on lap nine from the pole sitter Johnny Conner of Buxton. Freeland is from Hampton, Va. Tommy Cherry of South Mills, came in second. Conner finished in the third position. It was the fourth win of the season for Freeland who is currently the points leader. Finishing in fourth and fifth place were Jimmy McKinney of Elizabeth City and Rick Johnson of Chesapeake, respectively.

The second 20-lap event for the Super Street saw Ed Parsian of Portsmouth, Va. take his second win of the year. Ken Winslow of South Mills was in second place, Shawn Balluzzo of Norfolk was in third place and Tommy Cherry of South Mills and Danny Carrow of Suffolk were in fourth and fifth positions respectively.

In the Mighty Mini Division they ran a 15-lap event with Bobby Cahoon of Chesapeake taking his third win of the year. Cahoon led 13 of the 15 laps with points leader Al Carey running a tight second. Carey spun on lap 12, while Chuck Pritchard of Elizabeth City took second position and a new driver and car from Norfolk.

Ernest Sykes of Chesapeake and Rick Lake of Portsmouth finished fourth and fifth respectively while Al Carey took the sixth place spot.
