Foundation to meet

The Northeastern North Carolina Chapter of the Juvenile Diabetes Foundation will meet Monday, Sept. 16, 7:30 p.m., at the First Christian Church on Parsonage St. in Elizabeth City.

The meeting is open to the public. The topic will be "J.D.F. AND DIABETES PAST, PRESENT, FUTURE". Movies and a slide presentation will be shown. The Juvenile Diabetes Foundation is a non-profit international organization for all diabetics (not just children) regardless of age, as well as others with an interest in diabetes. Our goal is to find a cure for diabetes through research funded by donations and fund raising activities worldwide by more than 138 chapters.

Photographs wanted by museum

WANTED!! PHOTOGRAPHS OF WORLD WAR I AND II VETERANS IN UNIFORMS.

In conjunction with the exhibition opening on September 28 entitled "A World at War: Poster and Uniforms of World War I and II" the Museum of the Albemarle would like to solicit photographs of veterans of both World Wars for display. In an attempt to honor these brave men and women who fought for our country, the Museum will mount and display the photos which will serve as the opening panel for this exhibition.

The surviving veterans will be honored at the opening reception. These photos should be brought to the Museum of the Albemarle no later than September 15, 1985.

For further information, contact Raymond Sheely at 335-1453.

AADA meeting set

All interested Albemarle citizens are welcome to attend the next meeting of the Albemarle Area Development Association (AADA) tonight (Thursday, September 12) at the Dunes Restaurant, Walebone Junction in Dare County.

Molly Fearing and David Winslow of Manteo will speak on the proposed Roanoke Island Center for the Arts.

To reserve a place for the dinner meeting beginning at 7 p.m., phone toll free 1-800-672-4765 to express your wish to attend or contact Bob Spake at the Dare Co. Extension Office.

The Albemarle Area Development Association is a ten county volunteer organization promoting progress in Northeastern North Carolina. Monthly meetings are held the 2nd Thursday each month. Call your county extension office if you wish to attend.
