NNCT to host seminar

Northeastern North Carolina Tomorrow, Inc., will host a FREE seminar on "How to Choose a Medicare Supplement" on Monday, April 21st.

Medical Insurance Claims Service (MICS) will conduct this seminar designed to provide information to senior citizens on medical insurance. Questions to be covered: What does Medicare cover? What coverage do you really need? Can you reduce your insurance cost? What do you ask your insurance salesman? What about coverage for skilled nursing care?

The seminar will be held at the K.E. White Graduate Center in Elizabeth City. Registration will begin at 9:30. If you need additional information, please contact Jeni Foote at 335-3491.

BPW Meet the Candidates night set

The Perquimans County Business and Professional Woman's Club will host a "Meet the Candidates Night" on Thursday, May 1st at 7:00 p.m. at the Perquimans County Courthouse. Candidates running for local offices including Sheriff, County Commissioner, Board of Education and the First District House of Representatives are invited to speak.

The public is encouraged to attend.

Omission

In the April 10th edition of The Perquimans Weekly, the time of the ceremony was inadvertently omitted from the announcement for Lisa Marie Copeland-Joseph Mark Chappell engagement. The wedding date is set for May 4, 1986 at 3:00 p.m. at Warwick Baptist Church in Hobbsville, NC.

the Social Service Department and the local law officials.

SHIVELY—I believe truth, fair treatment and response to the need of the people are a big issue and concern of the voters of this county. I have been out and around this county for the past 20 years and a resident for almost 14 years. These are only some of the concerns of the people.

Why are you seeking public office?

BROUGHTON—To keep Perquimans County a safe place to live and raise families.

LOTHIAN—I am seeking public office because I see a need for new leadership and a new direction for law enforcement in this county.

RIDDICK—Because I have a sincere concern and care for the people of this county.

SHIVELY—I have served my country honorably in the past, and deserve to serve my county and state in the same manner.

Why do you feel that you are qualified to seek office?

BROUGHTON—I have acquired 20-years of experience in law enforcement. I have received numerous amounts of schooling on crime prevention and other techniques. I have spent one-third of my life as Sheriff of Perquimans County.

LOTHIAN—I have been involved in law enforcement for about ten-years as a police officer, deputy sheriff and a chief of police. I am a law enforcement officer only. It is all I do for a living. I attend schools and seminars on a regular basis to keep up with the changes that occur in the law enforcement field. My law enforcement education includes courses in advanced criminal investigation, advanced drug investigation, advanced crime scene processing, and cover investigation and intelligence gathering. I feel that I know what the people of this county want in the way of law enforcement and I feel that I can be of service to them. I have the experience, the desire and approximately 2,000 hours of police training to offer.

RIDDICK—In working with the Sheriff's Department some in the past, I feel that common sense and logic are the most important factors in dealing with anything. But, you can add those two factors with years and years of experience and training and schooling and they add up to zero, if you don't have a sincere caring, with a desire and drive to do the job.

I'm a simple man, with a simple belief that is, The people in this county are most deserving of law enforcement working for them and with them.

SHIVELY—I have 22 years service in the first line rating in the Navy. I have served as chief master at arms for ten years of naval service. I have over 1,000 hours duty as shore patrol and 120 hours as senior shore patrol officer. I served as a command boat captain (C-111-1) with an 11 man crew in Viet Nam.

FmHA announces program conditions

The Homestead available through the Farmers Home Administration (FmHA), after they have lost their farms due to FmHA foreclosure, conveyance or bankruptcy proceedings. Under certain conditions they can rent their home and about five acres for five years with an option to purchase the house within that time if they are financially able.

ELIGIBILITY
The Homestead program is meant for full time, commercial farmers who occupy the farm house as their principle residence and who do not have other suitable housing. Among the eligibility criteria are the following.

1. The applicant must have had gross annual farm or ranch sales of at least $40,000 in at least 2 calendar years during the 5-year period beginning Jan. 1, 1981 and Dec. 31, 1985 (or the equivalent crop or fiscal years).

2. The applicant and any spouse must have received from farming or ranching operations at least 60 percent of their gross annual income during at least 2 years of such 5-year period.

3. The applicant must currently occupy the dwelling and have engaged in farming or ranching operations on adjoining land or other land controlled by the borrower, during the 5-year period.

4. The application for the homestead provision must be received during the 3-year period commencing December 22, 1985, and ending December 22, 1988.

5. The applicant must be an individual who was personally liable for a former program loan.

6. The borrower must have exhausted all remedies for restructuring the FmHA loan(s).

7. The applicant must have been released from liability or have settled the FmHA debts, or the debts must have been discharged in bankruptcy.

Borrowers who meet these requirements will be given the opportunity to lease the dwelling and a reasonable amount of land, usually about 5 acres, for a period of 3 to 5 year with an option to purchase. The amount of rent under the lease will be based upon equivalent rents charged for similar residential properties in the area. The option price will be the appraised market value of the dwelling as established by an independent appraisal made within 6 months after the receipt of the borrower's request for dwelling retention.

SHERIFF of PERQUIMANS COUNTY

CONCERNS/GOALS

- Total commitment to the job.
- Immediate response to all calls for help or service with complete follow-up investigation.
- Good communication link established with all elected officials representing the people, and all local and surrounding law enforcement personnel.

Child abuse and drug use are the two most damaging things our young people and children may encounter in life. To deal effectively with these problems the sheriff's department must work closely with school officials, teachers, and Social Services Department.
