cal Director of Cardiopulmonary Services. Harp attended Skyline College and an Francisco College, both in San Mateo, Ca. He plans to continue his education toward a degree in Business Administration.

ABLE Center in need of volunteers

College of The Albemarle's ABLE Center needs volunteer tutors for its reading program. Mary Partin, program director, says community volunteers are an integral part of the college's new Adult Basic Literacy Education (ABLE) program.

Partin explained that volunteers are asked to tutor once a week for three hours. "They choose a time for a specific day that they can give to the program on a regular basis," she said.

Two training workshops for new volunteer tutors will be held on June 9 and 10. "Please call 335-0821, Extension 227, to volunteer your time as a reading tutor," the director urged.

The center is opened for 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. each Monday through Friday, and from 6 p.m. until 10 p.m. every Tuesday through Thursday.

Chowan Hospital commended for efforts

The American Hospital Association (AHA) commends Chowan Hospital for its continuing efforts to control costs and increase productivity. This facility was awarded the 1985-86 HAS Certificate of Recognition for being an active member of HAS-MONITREND. HAS-MONITREND is a comparative operational monitoring system, offered by AHA's Hospital Administrative Services Division (HAS), that assist hospitals in reducing costs while maintaining the quality of medical services.

According to Marvin A. Bryan, Hospital Director, "Using HAS-MONITREND to assess our operational performance helps us keep our costs in line with Medicare prices. Participating in this program puts us in a better position to provide high quality care to all patients as efficiently as possible."

Chowan Hospital demonstrates its commitment to provide high quality health care services while controlling costs and improving staff productivity through its voluntary participation in the MONITREND program. MONITREND data is used regularly to make management decisions for budgeting, staffing, and service.

Keever holds seminar at hospital

The Rev. Evelyn Keever, Chaplain at Childrens' Hospital of the Kings Daughters in Norfolk, conducted a seminar on "The Sudden, Unexpected Death of a Child" Monday, May 12, at Chowan Hospital.

Speaking to the hospital chaplains and area ministers. Mrs. Keever's talk focused on the minister's role in helping a family to cope following the death of their child.

The program was one of two continuing education programs sponsored annually by Chowan

Hospital for the volunteer chaplains.

The Rev. James Fenner presided over the short business meeting of the chaplains prior to Mrs. Keever's presentation.

The Open Door is seeking donations

The Perquimans Open Door is seeking donations of building supplies needed to build a structure to house the food supplies which Open Door collects for the needy. Needed are seventeen 2x4x12; twenty 2x4x8; nine sheets of 1/4 inch plywood and insulation for a 12 foot structure. Insulation is needed to avoid deterioration of the food in freezing weather.

Volunteers have already offered their labor and are ready to begin work as soon as the materials are available.

Anyone wishing to donate supplies or funds with which these supplies can be purchased should contact Miriam Haskett at 426-5620 no later than Monday, May 26, 1986.

Smathers to conduct seminar

EDENTON—Nancy Smathers, training specialist with the N.C. Department of Community College, will return on Tuesday, June 3 to present another seminar for local residents.

Association honors Pritchard, Underwood

Elaine Pritchard and Paige Underwood, Hertford, were among the 30 volunteers honored at the American Heart Association, North Carolina Affiliate's 37th Annual meeting, Delegate Assembly and Scientific Sessions, May 16-17 at the Winston Plaza, Winston Salem.

Pritchard and Underwood each received the Ten Year Service Award which is awarded to volunteers who have rendered 10 or more years of continuous and outstanding service in two or more of the Affiliate's major areas of interest. These interests include fund raising, community programs, publicity or administration. The award is a bronze medallion with an easel bearing the recipient's name.

Pritchard has conducted a variety of events and fund raisers for the Perquimans County Heart Association at Perquimans High School over the past 10 years.

Underwood has been active conducting Heart Sunday campaigns in the rural areas of Perquimans County.

The 37th Annual Meeting of Delegates brought together more than 150 medical and non-medical volunteer leaders from across the state to share ideas, discuss policy and recognize achievements.
