Reds Auto appointed local member of AAA

CHARLOTTE, N.C.—The AAA Carolina Motor Club has announced the appointment of Red's Auto Repair as a service facility representing the motoring organization in the Hertford area. The announcement was made by Jim Carpenter, manager of emergency road service for the Charlotte-based affiliate of the American Automobile Association.

Carpenter said, "We at AAA feel fortunate to be affiliated with a facility the caliber of Red's Auto Repair and are looking forward to working with Everett C. Maylin, the manager. We are sure they will provide the best possible service for our members in this area." Red's Auto Repair is located at 302 Dobbs Street, Hertford, North Carolina.

The AAA Carolina Motor Club currently has more than 359,000 members in the two Carolinas. Its parent organization, the American Automobile Association, has over 27 million members nationwide.

Evans receives deployment

Coast Guard Petty Officer 1st Class George B. Evans, son of Nancy P. and William D. Evans, Jr. of Route 1, Tyler, NC, recently deployed on a four month deployment to the Arctic aboard the Coast Guard Cutter Northwind, homeported in Wilmington, NC.

During the deployment Evans will participate in a month of training in Norfolk, VA, following research off the Newfoundland coast, and ice escort duties on Greenland's west coast.

Upon completion of the deployment, Evans will make port visits to Gronnedal and Christianshaab, Greenland; and Halifax and Prince Edward Island, Canada; before returning to Wilmington, NC.

A 1971 graduate of Needham B. Broughton High School, Raleigh, NC, he joined the Coast Guard in October 1975.

Barclift receives scholarships

Miss Linda Carol Barclift, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C.D. Barclift, Route 2, Hertford, has recently become the recipient of three scholarships.

Miss Barclift, who graduated from Perquimans High School on June 10, 1987, received the Valedictorian Scholarship and the Educational Office Personal Scholarship.

From the College of The Albemarle, which she plans to enter in the fall, Miss Barclift received the Presidents' Foundation Scholarship.

During her senior year she was president of the Beta Club, a member of the school's chorus, a member of the French Club and attended the Academic Awards Banquet for two years.

Locally, Miss Barclift is a member of the Epworth Methodist Church choir and the Methodist Youth Fellowship. She plans to major in Liberal Arts at COA.

Coffee shop to open

A combined coffee and gift shop at Chowan Hospital in Edenton will soon be built and operated by the Women's Hospital Auxiliary. An opening date in early fall is strongly possible. It's to be called The Perfect Prescription and managed by Mrs. Barbara Nixon.

Volunteers are now being sought to assist in each area. If you could offer some of your time each month, whether a four-hour morning or afternoon shift or a couple of hours nightly or on Sunday afternoons, please notify Mrs. Sharman Haskett at 426-5440 or Mrs. Barbara Nixon at 426-5266.

The auxiliary members are very excited about this project and will with the ship's operation from Perquimans residents.
