Variety of foods to be offered

This year's Indian Summer Festival will offer a variety of food items for even the most discriminating taste.

On Friday food booths will be set up in downtown Hertford offering everything from barbeque to homemade pastries. The booths will be sponsored by local county restaurants, and will remain open throughout the lunch hour for festival goers who want to stop and grab a quick bite, or just take a break from shopping.

On Friday evening the Perquimans County Chamber of Commerce will sponsor a fried chicken dinner with all the fixins. The dinner will begin at 5:00 p.m., and no tickets will be sold. Chicken plates will be available near the Blanchard Building on a first come - first serve basis only. The chamber will continue serving plates until approximately 7:00 p.m..

On Saturday, food booths will be set up along the sides of Missing Mill Park in Hertford. The booths will be sponsored not only by local restaurants but also by local churches and clubs trying to raise money. The booths will feature everything from baked goods to candy, and will be open all day long.

Saturday evening festival visitors will have the opportunity to enjoy a plate of barbeque fixed with all the trimmings, and sponsored by the Perquimans County Chamber of Commerce. The plates will run $4.00 each. No tickets will be sold for the pig pickin. Dinner will be served on a first come - first serve basis.

Make plans now and bring a big appetite to this year's Indian Summer Festival.
