A native of Wilmington, Del., he was the son of the late Allen J. and Minnie Lee Smith Winslow and the husband of Mrs. Atlessa "Lessie" W. Winslow. He was a retired farmer and a member of Bagley Swamp

Wesleyan Church.
Besides his wife, survivors include a daughter, Mrs. Graham (Lelia Lee) Senter of Salisbury, Md.; a son, Marshall A. Winslow of Virginia Beach, Va.; four sisters, Mrs. Ruth Rountree and Mrs. Virginia White, both of Rt. 1, Belvidere, Miss Clara Winslow and Miss Minnie Lee Winslow, both of Rt. 2, Hertford; two brothers, Dennis Winslow of Rt. 2, Hertford and Rev. Clarence Winslow of Bradenton, Fla.; 5 grandchildren and 1 great-grandchild.

Funeral services were held Saturday at 2:00 p.m. in the Bagley Swamp Wesleyan Church with Rev. Samuel Swinney and Rev. Daniel LeRoy officiating. Burial was in Bagley Swamp Cemetery with Swindell Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Pastors seminar scheduled by hospital on organ procurement

Chowan Hospital will sponsor a seminar on "The Pastor's Role in Organ Procurement" on Monday, October 19, from 10:00 a.m. until 12 noon. Open for hospital chaplains and interested area ministers, the seminar will be led by The Rev. Lewis Lint, senior chaplain for Pitt County Memorial Hospital in Greenville and Rick Walters of the Carolina Organ Procurement Agency in Greenville.

The purpose is to educate and inform clergy persons from all faiths as to the need for organ donations, and the minister's role in the emotional dynamics involving the families of the donors and the recipients.

Any minister interested in attending the seminar is asked to call 482-8451, extension 200, on or before Tuesday, October 13th to register. There is no registration fee.

Chowan county fair to open

The 40th Annual CHOWAN COUNTY FAIR will be held October 12th thru 17th at the American Legion Post 40 Fairgrounds on U.S. Hwy. 27 S. Bus., Edenton. American Legion Post 40 has been the continuous sponsor of this outstanding community service program since its beginning in 1947.
The Chowan County Fair Association, in recognition of four (4) decades of support by the citizens of the area, has worked diligently to ensure that the 1987 Fair will be a memorable event. The entertainment budget has been substantially increased to provide quality free entertainment and thrills for all Fair goers.
The star stage attraction will be Victoria Hallman, entering her 5th season starring on "Hee Haw". Victoria will be accompanied by Nashville, TN songwriter and performer, Kent Westberry and The Memory Makers. They will perform two shows on Thursday, October 15th and Friday, October 16th.

Thrills and chills will be the reaction of all who watch The Sensational Jordans and their GLOBE OF DEATH daredevil motorcycling act. The Jordans, based out of Las Vegas, Nevada are third generation circus performers. John and Patsy Jordan are former members of the Great Wallendas high wire act.
More quality entertainment will be provided by area bands and organizations. Other attractions include Bertie-Martin Band (Wed.), Southern Fury (Tues.), Rocky Hock Rebels (Sat.), 4-H Regional Talent Contest (Tues., Thurs., & Fri.), Senior Citizens Recognition (Thurs.) and the Queen of the Fair Beauty Pag-nant (Sat.).

For those young at heart, there will be a new and larger midway providing rides, games and thrills of all types. The midway is supplied by Eastern Seaboard Shows.
A county fair is never complete without exhibits and displays that demonstrate the talents of all ages of our area citizens. There are 26 divisions with over 1,200 classes of exhibits offering over $6,500 in premiums that can be won. Exhibit entry will be Saturday, October 10th and Sunday, October 11th, from 2:00-6:00 p.m. each day. All residents of the Albemarle-Roanoke-Chowan area are eligible to enter their talents for all to see. Anyone requiring exhibit information should contact the Chowan County Extension Service at 482-8431. For other information, call American Legion Post 40 at 482-4057.
