ELWOOD QUINTON WHITE
Hertford—Elwood Quinton White, 79, of Rt. 2, Box 143, Hertford, died Sunday, June 5, in Chowan Hospital. A native of Perquimans County, he was the son of Leola Rountree White of Rt. 1, Belvidere, and the late Ernest W. White, and the husband of Grace Smith White. He was the retired co-owner of the former White Cadillac-Oldsmobile Co. of Elizabeth City and retired co-owner of Midway Chevrolet of Sunbury. He was a member of Bagley Swamp Wesleyan Church and former member of its Board of Trustees, and he was a Gideon.

Besides his wife and mother, survivors include: one daughter, Ms. Brenda Ann White of Kernersville; one step-daughter, Mrs. Wayne (Ann) Winslow of Rt. 2, Hertford; two sisters, Mrs. Hazel W. Stallings of Rt. 1, Belvidere, and Mrs. Esther Mae Klaphaak of Louisville, Ky.; two brothers, Allen White of Gwynedd, Pa., and Rollow White of Rt. 1, Belvidere; and two grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Tuesday, June 7, at 2:00 in the Bagley Swamp Wesleyan Church with Rev. Samuel Swinney and Rev. Daniel LeRoy officiating. Burial followed in the Bagley Swamp Cemetery with Swindell Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Class of 1978 plans reunion

The Perquimans County High School Class of 1978 will be holding its Ten Year Reunion on Saturday July 2 at the Jaycee Building (fairgrounds) in Elizabeth City.

Barbeque beef and chicken, vegetables, rolls, dessert and beverages will be catered by the Perquimans County Jaycees. Paul Ahern will be the disc jockey for the evening. A social hour will be held from 6:30 - 7:30 p.m., followed by supper (7:30 - 8:30 p.m.) and a dance (8:30 - 1:30 a.m.).

On Sunday, July 3, class members are invited to an outing on the Albemarie Sound (Durants Neck Area) to enjoy volleyball, swimming and a "picnic dinner" with classmates. Bring your own meal and beverage, children are welcome and the cost is FREE! Maps to the picnic site will be made available on Saturday evening.

Also, class members who stay in town for the 4th of July are encouraged to take advantage of the activities at Missing Mill Park in Hertford. "Magic" is the featured band and the fireworks display is at dark. Scheduled activities and homemade goodies will be at the park during the day. If you are a member of the PCHS Class of '78 and have not received information on the reunion or have questions regarding the activities, please call one of the class officers listed below: Lynn Hurdle-Winslow (426-5347 or 335-0821) or JoAnne Meads Jones (426-9599 or 335-2487). Checks or money orders ($30.00 couples - $15 singles) should be sent to Mary Wood Hurdle, in care of PCHS Class of '78, Rt. 5, Box 23-A, Hertford, NC 27944. The deadline for payment has been extended to June 15. No refunds will be given.
