EVANS-BRACHT
Deborah Jean Bracht and Joseph Lloyd Evans, Jr. were married Saturday, June 18th at 7 p.m. in Forest Hills Baptist Church, Raleigh, NC by Dr. Jerry Hayner.
The bride is the daughter of Mr. George R. Bracht of Fairport, NY and Mrs. Karen Hayes of Wilmington, NC.
The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lloyd Evans, Sr. of Route 1, Hertford, NC.
The bride was escorted by her father, and given in marriage by her parents. She wore a full length gown of satin with sposabella lace, pearls and iridescent sequin. It featured a sweetheart neckline bordered in illusion with beaded lace motifs. Elizabethan sleeves with satin puffed shoulders and lace decorated illusion forearms fell from the shoulders to wedding point cuffs. The fitted basque bodice was handsomely detailed with beaded lace flowers and strands of dangling pearls. From the waist flowed a full satin skirt and cathedral length peacock train. The front of the skirt was adorned with an elongated beaded lace motif with streams and cut outs of sposabella lace enhancing the train. The gown was completed with a full border of scalloped sposabella lace.
Miss Paige Newland of Wilmington, NC, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Laura Dwyer of Raleigh, Miss Crissy Kane of Wilmington, Miss Kim McDuffie of Charlotte, Miss Tammy Rogers, sister of the bride, of Athinson, and Miss Lori Sinclair of Raleigh. Junior bridesmaid was Ashley Gower of Raleigh, neice of the groom. Flower girl was Laura Musten of Raleigh, neice of the groom. Ringbearer was Emerson Gower III of Raleigh, nephew of the groom.

The groom's father served as bestman. Ushers were Phil Coggins of Richmond, Va., John Evans of Hertford, brother of the groom, Tim Gardner of Salisbury, Dr. Chris Reese of Raleigh and Charles Woodward of Hertford.
Director of services was Roger Davenport of Raleigh. Wedding music was presented by Larry Green of Cary. Soloist was Jane Gower of Raleigh, sister of the groom.
The bride is a graduate of NCSU with a degree in Chemical and Textile Engineering. She is employed with DuPont of Waynesboro, Va.
The groom is a graduate of UNC-Chapel Hill. He is employed as a Pharmacist at Matha Jefferson Hospital in Charlottesville, Va.
On Friday evening, following the rehearsal, a dinner was given by the groom's parents at NCSU Faculty Club.
A reception was held at NCSU Faculty Club following the services.
After a wedding trip to Bermuda, the couple will make their home in Charlottesville, Va.

Brian Center holds family night, June 9th

On June 9, 1988 at 7:30 p.m. Brian Center Family Night was held. Speakers for the evening included the Area Ombudsman, Becky Baker, and the Perquimans County Nursing Home Advisory Committee. The presentation dealt with Becky Baker, Ombudsman, stating the role and responsibility of the Nursing Home Advisory Committee and how the need for such a Committee was initiated. Ms. Baker further stated the committee members are appointed by the County Commissioners and that the members are trained in the area of Nursing Home care as they relate to the North Carolina Patient Bill of Rights. Rev. Needham, Chairman of the Nursing Home Advisory Committee, spoke with the group emphasizing the aims of the committee and that of families being one of concern for the "well being of your loved ones" and "a mutual pride of the best". Families were encouraged to discuss their concerns needs with the Nursing Home Department Heads consisting of: Nancy B. Morgan, Social Worker, J.M. Crawford, Administrator and Deena Towe, Director of Nursing.

In summary, Nancy Morgan, Social Worker, thanked the families for their attendance and continued support.

Currituck High wins coveted Wachovia cup

Currituck High School has won the Wachovia Trophy in the Albemarle-A Conference.
Currituck finished with 64 points, paced by first-place finishes in boys' track and baseball for a total of 38 points during the spring sports season.

awarded based on participation and excellence and are tallied after the fall, winter and spring sports season.
The Wachovia Trophy, sponsored by Wachovia Bank and Trust, is the companion to the Wachovia Cup, which is sanctioned by the North Carolina High School Athletic Association. The Cup honors one school each in 1-A, 2-A, 3-A and 4-A classifications for top overall performance in the state. Cup winners will be announced in late June, and the awards will be presented at NCHSAA Day at UNC-Chapel Hill in the fall.

Perquimans was second with 63 total points, Camden was third with 62.5 points, followed by Gates County with 61, Murfreesboro with 56, Manteo with 54, Northhampton West with 51.5, Weldon with 42.5 and Cape Hatteras with 32.5.
The Wachovia Trophy recognizes high school that have the best overall sports programs for boys and girls within their conferences. Points are
