Open house scheduled

It has been two years since Chowan Hospital first announced its plans to construct a new 40-bed skilled nursing wing attached to the acute care hospital.

The months of planning and construction will come to an end with a ribbon-cutting ceremony and Open House on Sunday, July 10, from 2 to 4 p.m. The public is cordially invited to attend the ceremony. During the Open House, free cholesterol screening will be offered, as well as tours of the new unit. Refreshments will be served in the unit's dining room.

Tentative plans are to move patients into the new wing on Thursday, July 14. This is contingent upon approval by the State licensure and construction sections.

Residents of the new unit will be those who no longer require the acute level of care provided in a hospital setting but who continue to need professional assistance.

Immunization clinic set

The Perquimans County Health Department will be holding its monthly nighttime immunization clinic for working parents on Thursday, July 7, 1988, from 5:00-7:00 P.M.
