Brian Center news and information

Etta Thompson celebrated her one hundredth birthday on October 15th, along with other residents born in that month. This event was co-hosted by Mrs. Thompson's family and Brian Center. Etta's family presented a "This is Your Life" program and certainly Etta Thompson was the center attraction. She sang several songs, accompanied by the Snug Harbor Combo Band. Decorations were pink and silver. About 100 guests filled our dining room. There was a shower of gifts, videos and pictures taken. The family quartet gathered for some old favorites and there were not many dry eyes as the greeting from Nancy and Ronald Reagan was read. Residents at Brian Center enjoy a Birthday Celebration every month and some are extra special, as was this. Plans have been made for our annual Halloween Carnival Party at 2:30 p.m. on October 31st. A costume parade will highlight this event. Residents, families and employees are invited to join in the fun. Prizes will be awarded.

Also, we at Brian Center would like to extend a welcome to children, accompanied by a parent to stop by for a treat between 7 and 8 p.m., October 31.

Plans are in the making for the annual Christmas Party, co-hosted by the Perquimans County Jaycees. The date has been set for Tuesday night, December 6.

Don't forget kids, get Mom or Dad or big sister or brother to bring you out for a treat and show us your costumes!!!
