COA releases dean's list

Ten Perquimans County residents were among 119 College of The Albemarle students who earned scholastic averages that were high enough to assure the inclusion of their names on the college's winter quarter dean's list. The "honor students" names were released this week by Norman L. Norfleet, COA dean of instruction.

The honors list represents 8.39 percent of the overall winter enrollment of 1,418 curriculum students at the community college. Perquimans scholars comprised approximately 8.4 percent of the total number of those recognized by the dean.

Norfleet explained that in order to become eligible, a students must complete a minimum of 12 quarter-hours of course work with a 3.5

grade point average, and have no grade below "C." The highest attainable GPA is a 4.0, he said.

Perquimans residents whose academic achievements were recognized included: Linda Carol Barclift, pre-liberal arts; Linda White Beamon, pre-elementary education; Jeffrey Scott Cain, mechanical drafting and design technology; Edwin Eugene Pulley, Jr., pre-computer science; William Thomas Nixon, business computer programming; Lisa Michele Stevenson, general education; John R. Strong, Jr., machine operator; Donna Marie Winslow, pre-elementary education; Paula Kaye Winslow, undecided; and Kathy Lovelle Wood, pre-business administration.
