Heart Month auction is today

By BETH FINNEY
Activity Director

Our premiere Heart Month event, the auction is set for today (Feb. 25) at 3 p.m. We've got a lot of great stuff to be auctioned.

For those who love good food, dinners at Catfish Cafe, Angler's Cove, White's and Jimmy's will go on the auction block. Also up for grabs are designer sweatshirts (Jeannie Houlihan), table fan (Diver's), Wilson basketball (Hertford Hardware), umbrella (Darden's), bed Jacket (White's Dress Shoppe), motor oil (Coast Oil), oil change and service at Jiffy Lube (Charles Ward), video rentals (Video Stars), vase (Dozier's), jewelry (Quality Clothing), book (Orchard Shop), figurine (Gregory's), and a sewing basket (Woodard's).

In addition to donations from businesses, people in the community have donated items. Mrs. Lilly Jackson and Raphael and Lillie Agle have been very generous. There will be something for everyone, so come on out and support this heart healthy cause.

Just prior to the auction, the King and Queen of Hearts will be crowned.

The whole community has been super, this month in particular. We thank all of you from the bottoms of our hearts. All proceeds from our functions this month go to the Perquimans County Heart Association.

Aldine Lewis, I love you and thank you for every bit of help you've given me this month, especially with our Heart Tree. It's beautiful! Once again, thanks to you all and come on out to see us any time.

TAX TIP #9

Shelter Your Income and Cut Taxes

There are still legitimate ways to shelter income from taxes. Investing in fully or partially tax-exempt instruments such as municipal bonds, Treasury bills, and the like can be an excellent tax-cutting strategy. Other shelter opportunities, such as turning your hobby into a second occupation or actively participating in rental real estate, should be explored if your tax bracket warrants it.
