Winslow is Teacher of Month

Sharon Basnight Winslow, a resource teacher at Weeksville Elementary School, was selected by the Elizabeth City Junior Woman's Club as January's Educator of the Month.

Winslow has been employed with the Elizabeth City-Pasquotank School System for more than five years. She works with learning disabled and educable mentally handicapped students.

Winslow is a member of the Elizabeth City Pentecostal Holiness Church, where she also teaches seventh- and eighth-grade Sunday school classes. She also is a member of the North Carolina Association of Education and reading organizations.

A resident of Hertford, she is the wife of Gary Winslow. They have a 4-year-old, Dustin. Her father is a former teacher, coach, and principal in Camden and was a definite influence on her decision to teach.

Winslow attended East Carolina University for two years and later graduated from Elizabeth City State University. She plans to add a learning disabled certification to her present certificate.
