Abbate earns top state honors

By SUSAN R. HARRIS

A Perquimans County High af the James B. Hunt young Citizen Awards ceremony at Wake Forest University last month.

Jodi Lynn Abbate received a 5,000 scholarship to be used at any college in the state. She was one of three scholarship recipi-ents among the 100 youth named James B. Hunt Young Citizens. Two other Young Citizens received scholarships, one of $2,000 and one of $3,000.

The program is administered by Wake Forest on behalf of the governor, and honors outstand-ing young citizens of the state who are active in their schools, churches and communities, and who are dedicated to community service and leadership. One each county.

An honor student, Jodi is a member of the P.C.H.S. Beta Club, the Snug Harbor Teens in Action 4-H Club and its Try Act team, serves as a tutor at the Snug Harbor Afternoon School Tutorial Program, and is active in her church. She and a friend recruited the 4-H leaders and members to start the group. The club's emphasis is community service, and members complete Jodi is the daughter of Mr. ucation at Meredith College in projects such as collecting food and Mrs. Donald Gustafson of Raleigh.

Jodi Abbate of Hertford earned the top scholarship award at the James B. Hunt Young Citizens Award ceremonies last month. The award was presented by Gov. Hunt.

wooden chairs for the Snug Harbor clubhouse. She is a former high school class officer, SADD Club officer and band member. She presently works part-time.

for the needy and building Hertford and Anthony Abbate of Jamestown, N.Y. Her grandmother is Beatrice Kreckel of Hertford.

Jodi plans to further her ed-

Food service employees attend meeting sociation attended a District I Association meeting in Hertford County on Nov. 13.

state president-elect.

updates on National School derson, Gail Adams, Doris White and Marianne Vaughn.

Members of the Perquimans Lunch Week observances and lo- Chappell, Nancy Chappell, Faye County School Food Service As- cal programs. Special guests Elliott, Carolyn Darnell, June were Jan Holt, state association Hunter, Debbie Godfrey, Joyce president, and Dorothy Kirby, Harrison, Annette Johnson, Alice Harrison, Annette Johnson, Alice Lamb, Belinda Long, Ruth Jor-The theme of the meeting Those attending from Perquidan, Mary Schuttheiss, Edith was Nutrition. Each chapter gave mans County were LaClaire An-Mansfield, Jean Ward, Gail

Business sponsor book distribution forces to give books to first graders at Hertford Grammar School. White's Barbecue, Joe's Auto My Favorite Book. Body and Painting, Smith's Jew-

Four local businesses joined elers and Dr. Robert Earl Lane made donations to allow each first grader to receive a copy of

The book is designed and written to bring positive influence into children's lives. It illustrates the beauty of their world and the people who are in their world, especially themselves.

School counselors attend conference

Mancy Alexander, and David struction. Weitz, Perquimans County counelors, last month joined more than 1,300 school counseling professionals from across the state at the North Carolina School Counselor Association Annual conference held Nov. 15-17 in Greensboro. The conference was co-sponsored by the GREENSBORO - Gray Dixon, N.C. Department of Public In-

They attended skill-building workshops and grade level interest meetings which covered a range of topics, including family dynamics, nulticultural awareness, career guidance, developmental program planning, and legal and ethical issues.

The conference theme was 'Councelors: Lighting the Way to the Future." Featured speakers included Jack Canfield, Dr. Fred Krieg, State Superintendent Bob Etheridge and Ms. Arden Mar-

County school meal menus set

The Perquimans County cheeseburger on a bun, scalloped bun, cereal, bread, fruit or juice, pools meal menus for Dec. 6- potatoes, bowl of beans, green milk. Lunch - Chicken nuggets Schools meal menus for Dec. 6--10 are as follows:

Monday: Breakfast - Ham Discuit, cereal, bread, fruit or juice, milk. Lunch - Fish on a bun or pizza, crinkle fries, green limas, corn, fruit cup, milk.

Tuesday: Breakfast - Muffin, cereal, toast, fruit or juice, milk. Lunch - Chicken pattie or peas, applesauce, milk.

Wednesday: Breakfast - Sausage biscuit, cereal, bread, fruit or juice, milk. Lunch - Sloppy Joe on a bun or sausage dog on a roll, potato wedges, baked beans, pears, mixed vegetables, milk. Lunch - Chicken nuggets or ham and cheese on a bun, boiled potatoes, cabbage, okra, juice, hot roll, milk.

Thursday: Breakfast - Honey pineapple, milk.

Friday: Breakfast - Coffee-cake, cereal, bread, fruit or juice, milk. Lunch - Taco basket or hot dog on a roll, potato wedges, green limas, lettuce and tomato,

COA Chowan Center offers winter courses

County Center.

On Tuesdays from 9 a.m.noon, Diana Miller will teach tole painting. The class started Nov.

Three Continuing Education 30. Miller will also teach decoration to the fee is to the painting on Thursdays from $30.

Winter Quarter at COA's Chowan 7-10 p.m. starting Dec. 2. Registration for all of these testing fee is $25. tration fee is $35.

Sign language will be offered on Thursdays from 7-10 p.m. starting Dec. 2. The class will be classes takes place the first three weeks of class. For more information call 482-7900 from 5-7 p.m. Monday-Thursday.

6 or 7 Nights Aboard the ss Meridian RMUDA CRUISE Save up to $300 if deposit received by Jan. 31, 1994

6 Night Cruise

April 24 · Charleston, SC 7 Night Cruises pril 30 - Wilmington, NC by 8 - Newport News, VA Oct. 15 • Newport News, VA Oct. 23 • Charleston, SC

7-Day Western Caribbean Cruise ms Nieuw Amsterdam March 26, 1994 from Tampa, FL Holland America Line RADITION OF EXCELLENCE

THIS SPACE BE YOURS!

HILLARY'S TV SERVICE Servicing All Major Brands 426-8129

CAROLINA HOUSE • Christmas House

A New Service At The Carolina House In Time For The Holidays. Custom Invitations aturing invitations for special occasions A unique collection of papers for you to choose from for all your party needs.

Clothtique Santas

Bob Timberlake Afghans

Bacova Mailboxes (order by December 8)

Lefton's Colonial Village

Deluxe Trees - 2' to 10'

Deluxe Wreaths - 12" to 60"

Ribbons & Bows

Precious Moments 15-Year Figurine

Noah's Ark Set

LUTHER GREENHOUSES • Pansies • Poinsettias Mon-Sat 9:30 to 5 • Sunday 1 to 5 DIRECTIONS: In Elizabeth City, follow U.S. 17 By-Pass, turn beside Eagle Mart BP onto Halstead Blvd. Go to 4th stop light, take a right on Peartree Road. We're only 4 miles out on left.

There is a live Christmas tree on the front lawn of the hospital, with hundreds of lights and topped with a star, that will be lit on Wednesday, December 1st at 5:30 P.M.

Celebrate life and show your admiration or love for someone with a Christmas light. Honor your Mother, Father, Brother, Sister, Wife, Husband, Children, Pavorite Friend, Teacher, Babysitter, or Doctor. Businesses may show their appreciation to their staff by purchasing a light in the star. Lights may be purchased through December 31st.

Each tree light costs $5.00. A light in the star costs $25.00. Proceeds will be used for future projects for Chowan Hospital. The person you honor or remember will receive a Christmas card announcing that you have purchased a light in his or her name. Each name and contributing business will be acknowledged in the Chowan Herald throughout the Christmas Season. Support your hospital and buy a light for someone special! To purchase a light, fill out the coupon below and mail it with your check to:

Ralph Clapper, Chairman Tree of Life Friends of Chowan Hospital P.O. Box 629 - Edenton, N.C. 27932

For Further Information, call: Chowan Hospital, Inc. 482-6268 Forms are available from Chowan Hospital, Post Office, Town Hall, Chowan Tax Office and the library.

